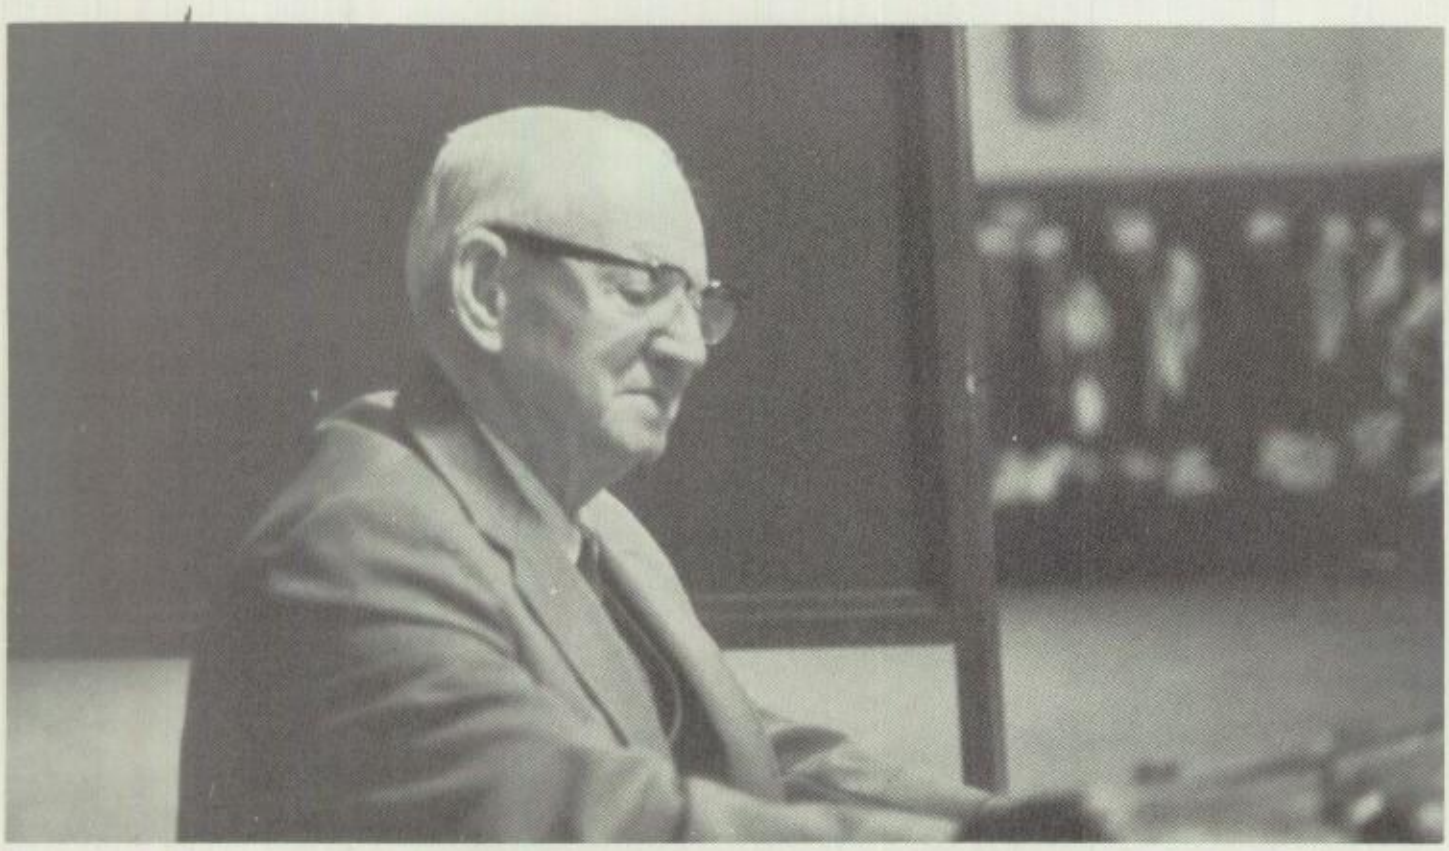
Dedication

The Warrior Staff proudly dedicates the 1982 Warrior to Ann Holbrook and to "Doc" Roy Owens.

Ann Holbrook

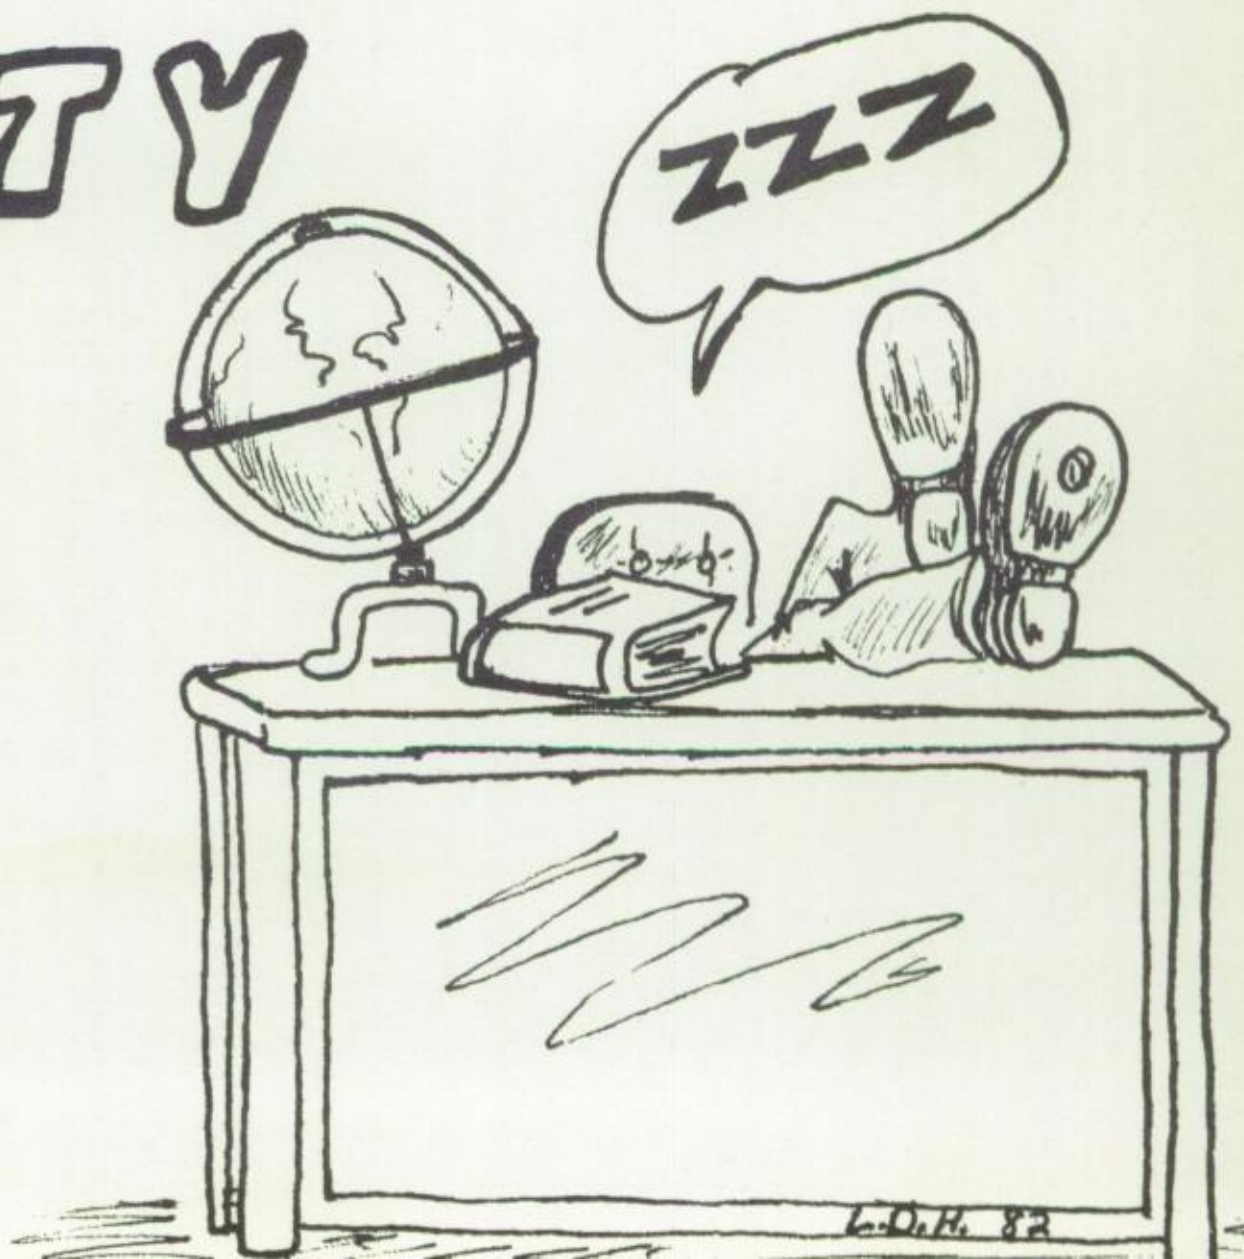
Ann Holbrook is the vocational counselor for our school and comes here every Thursday to talk with students about personal problems or questions that they might have about their future plans. Whenever you need someone to talk with, you can always be sure that Ann Holbrook will be there with a smile on her face. We honor this lovely person.

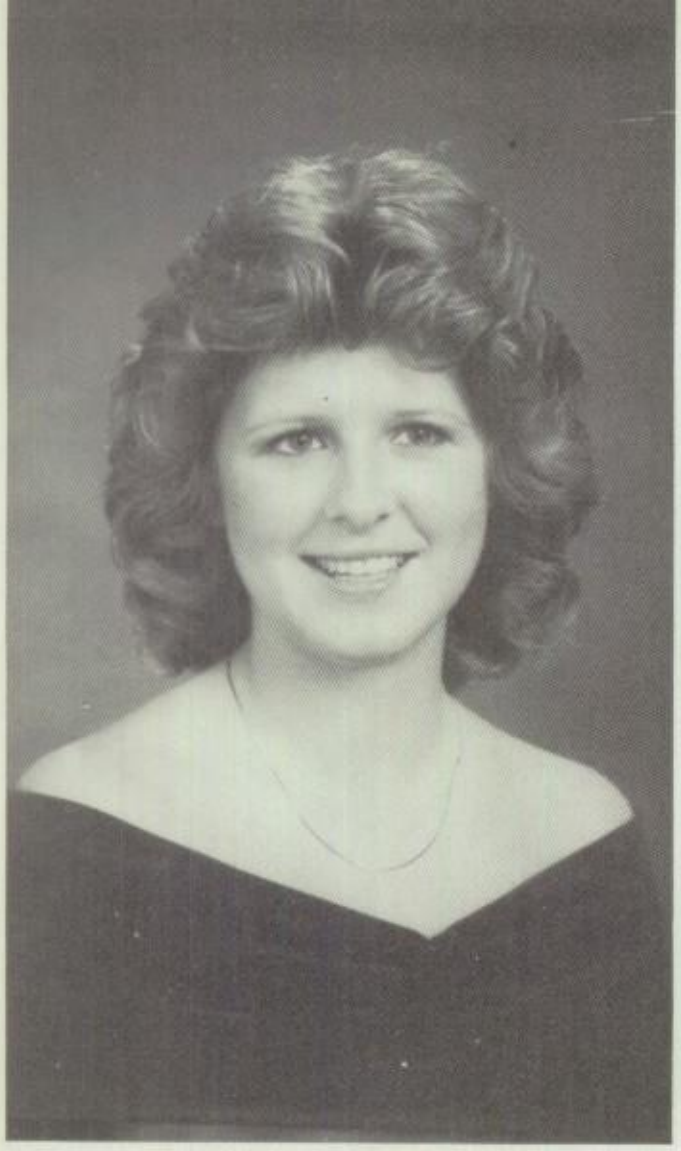


Roy C. Owens

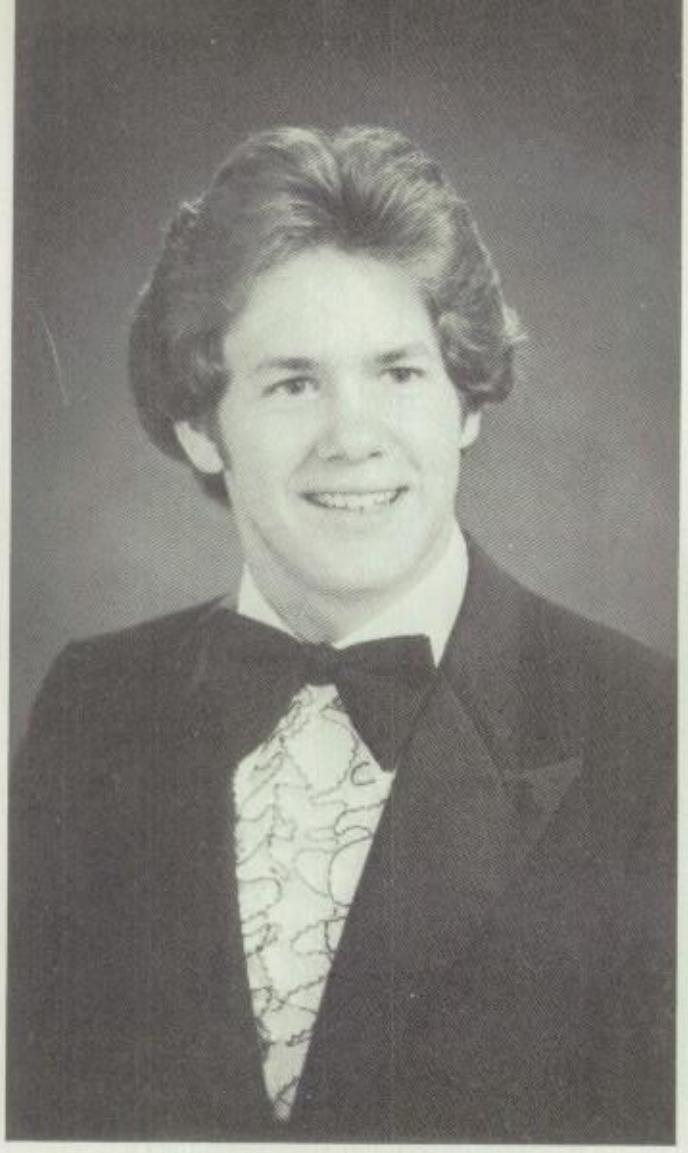
"Doc" Roy C. Owens has been the athletic team doctor since 1955. He is loved by players and fans alike. When "Doc" enters the dressing room, the players know everything will be all right. He and his golf cart are a familiar sight on the side lines at all the football games, and he is loved by everyone he meets. We salute this truly wonderful man.

SENIORS AND FACULTY

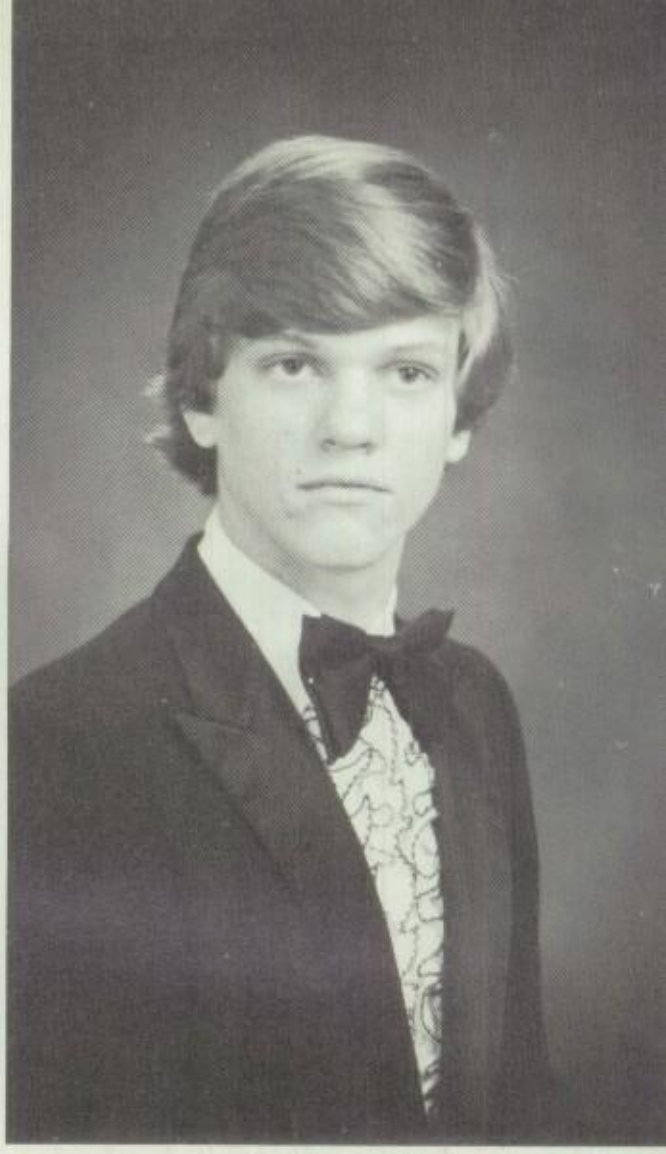




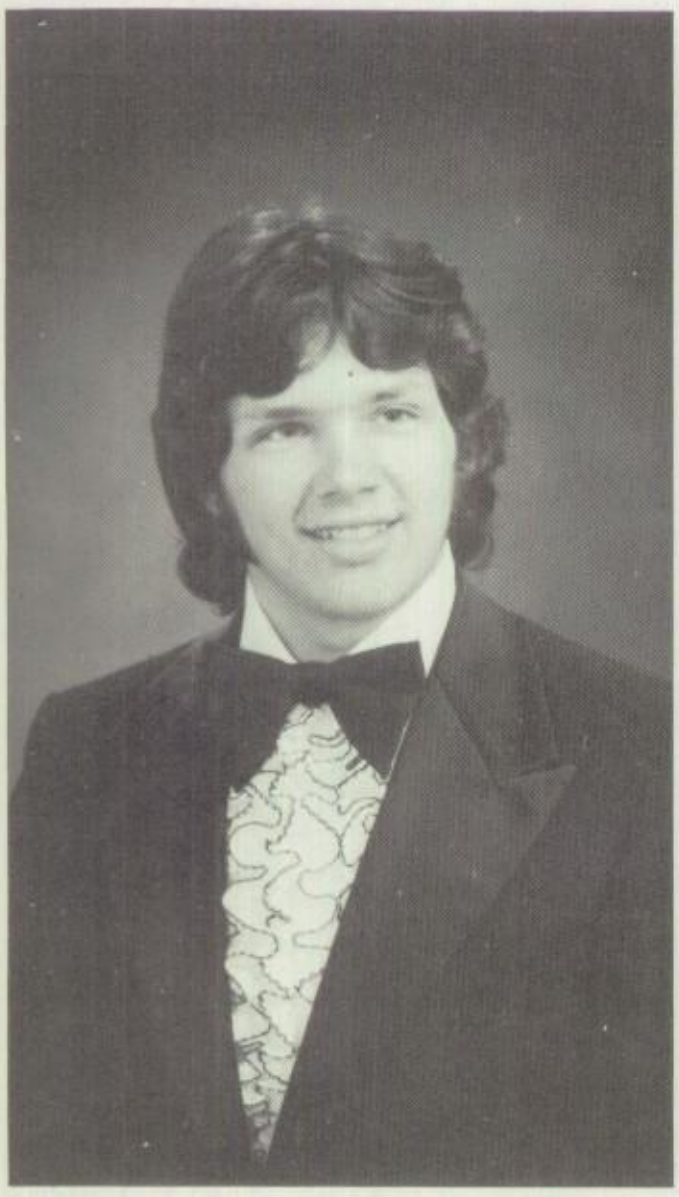
Cathy Abernathy
In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.



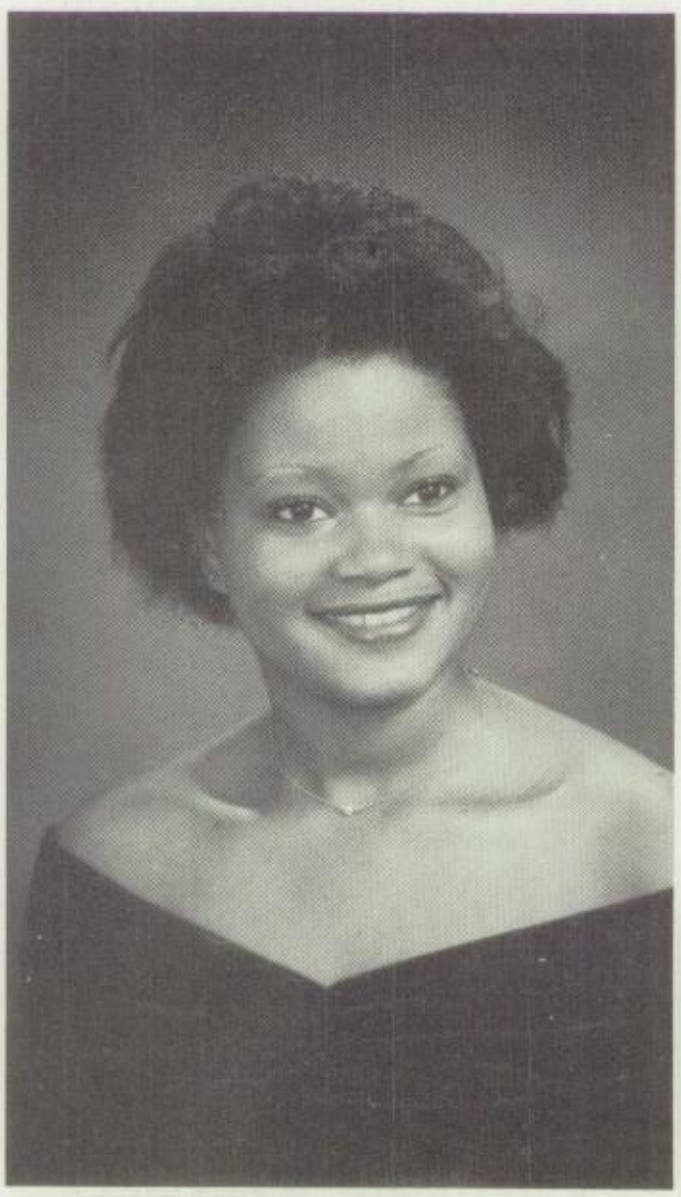
Jerry Arrington
I look at things from one point of view . . . mine.



Keith Barker
Friendship is the wine of life, so let's get drunk.



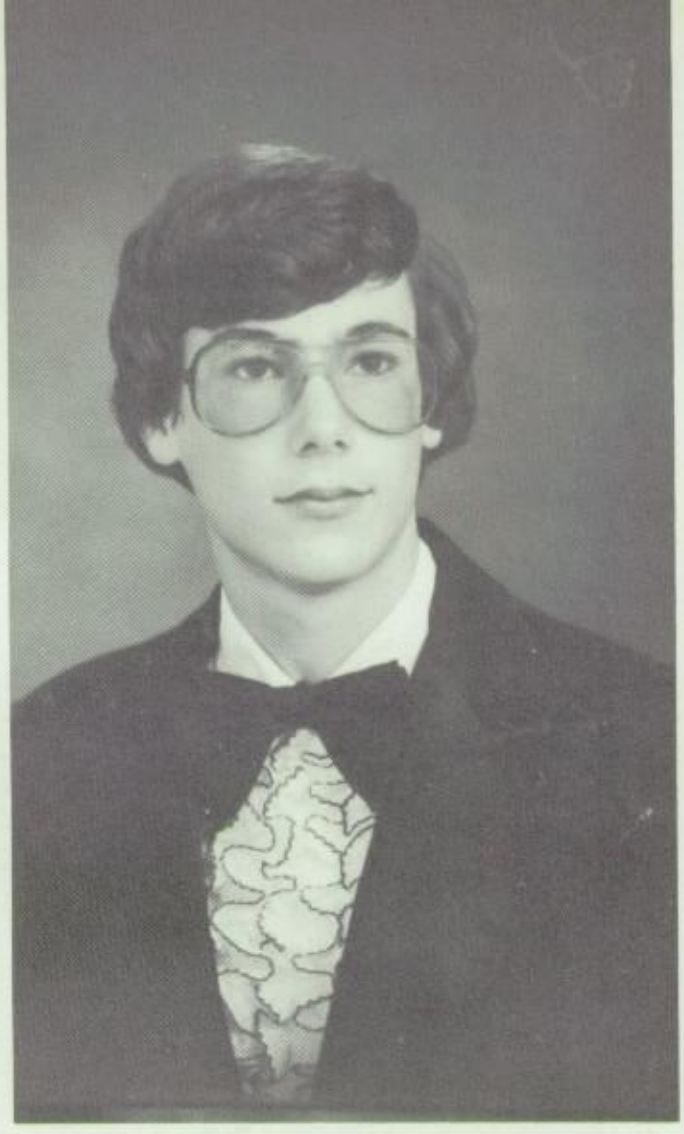
Jack Bennett
Live life to its fullest. Once you're dead, life isn't worth living.



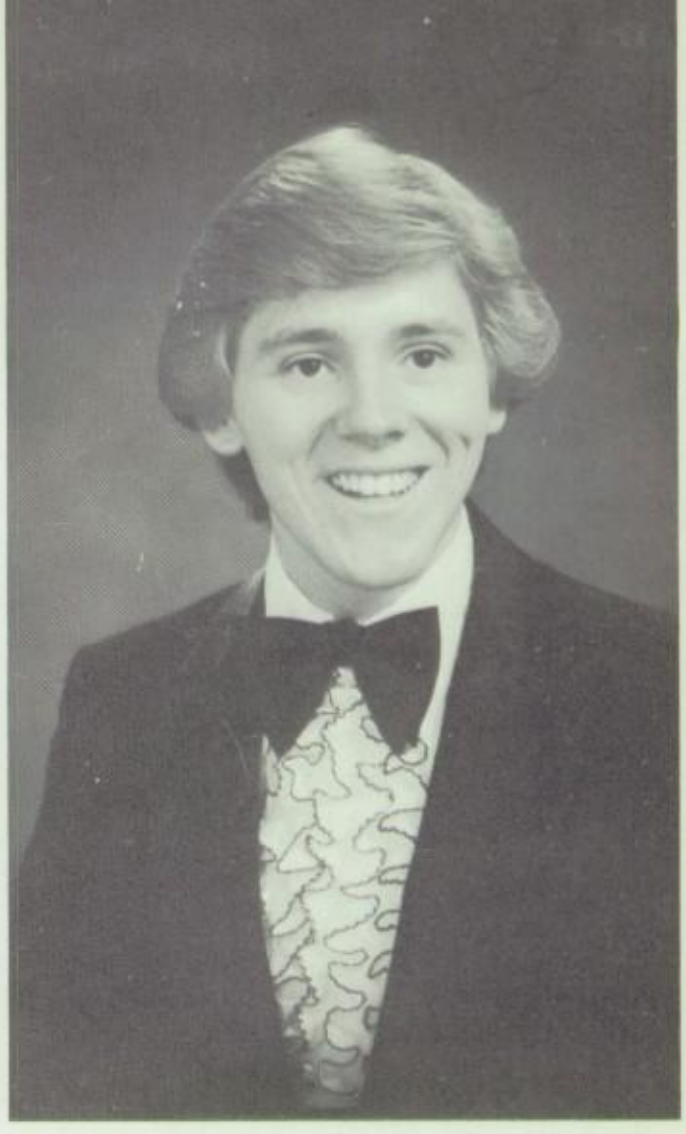
Debbie Berry
You will never know I appreciate you, because I will probably never tell you.

Tamara Bice
The great thing in life is not where you stand but where you are going.

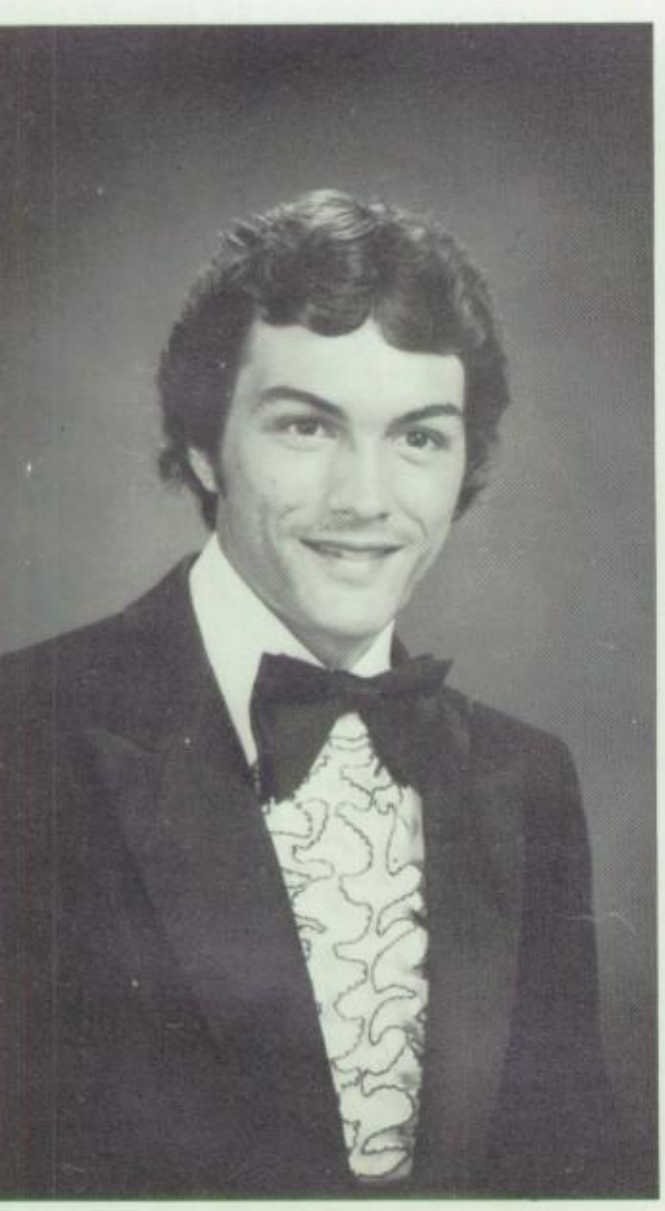
Roxanne Bowden
If you bring sunshine to the lives of others, you cannot keep it from yourself.



Scott Boyd
I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.



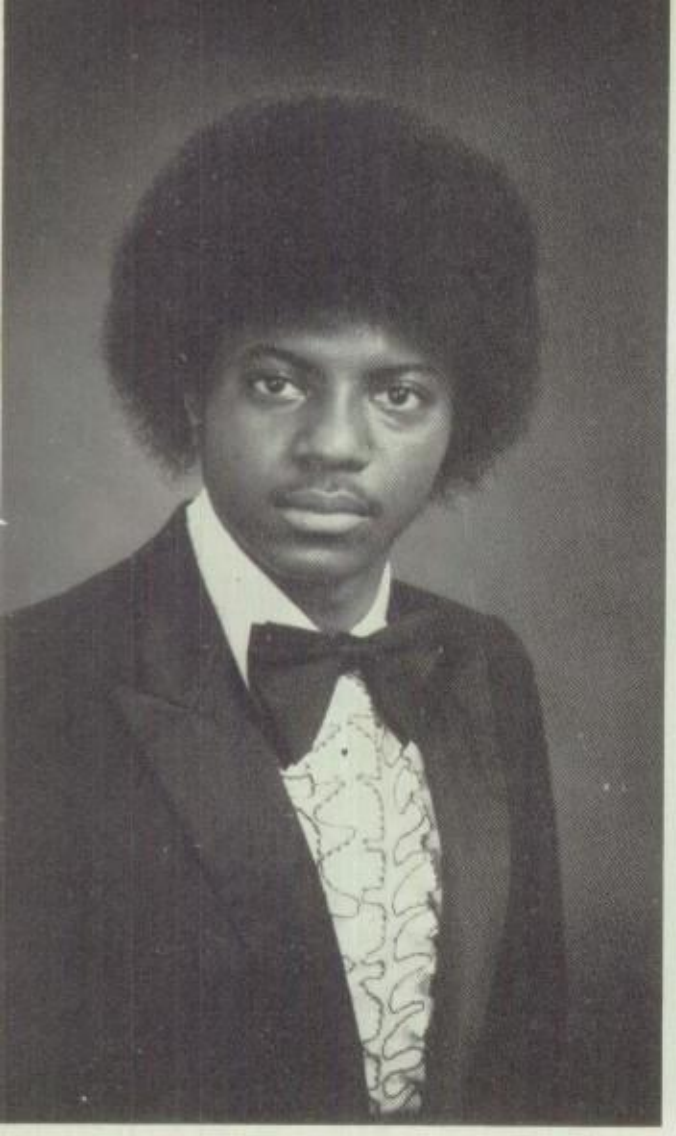
Robbie Bragg
If there's anything I can't stand, it's somebody talking while I'm interrupting.



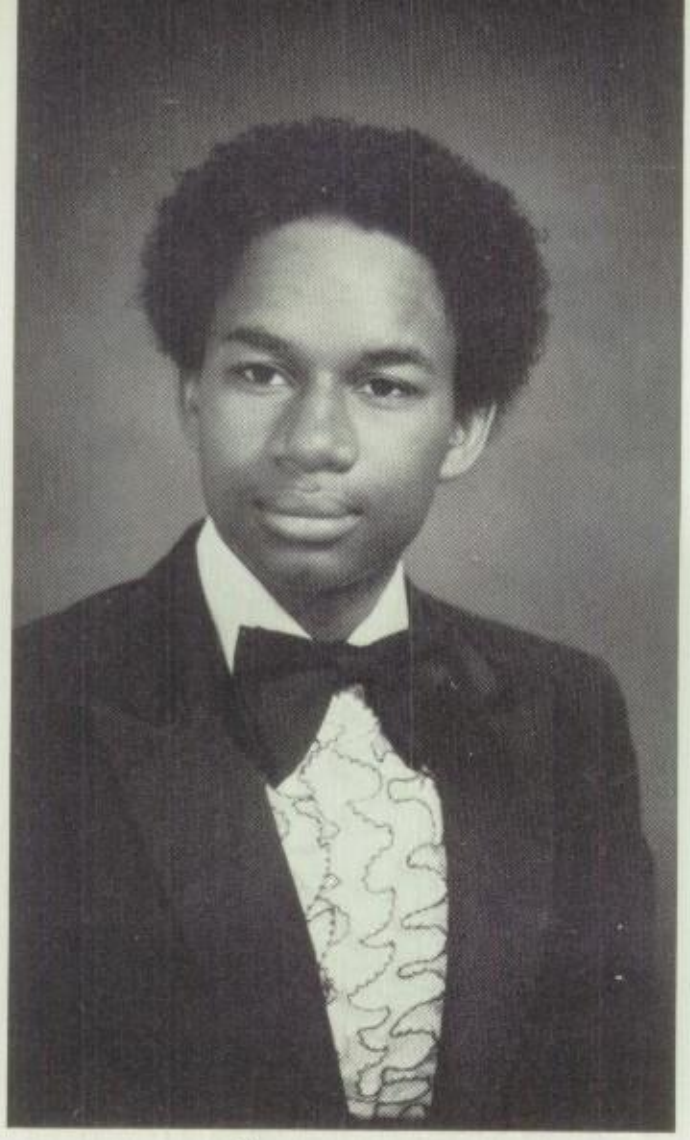
Marty Branson
If his life is as long as his legs, he'll live forever.

Darlene Brewster
Be patient with yourself, grow in your own way, in your own time.

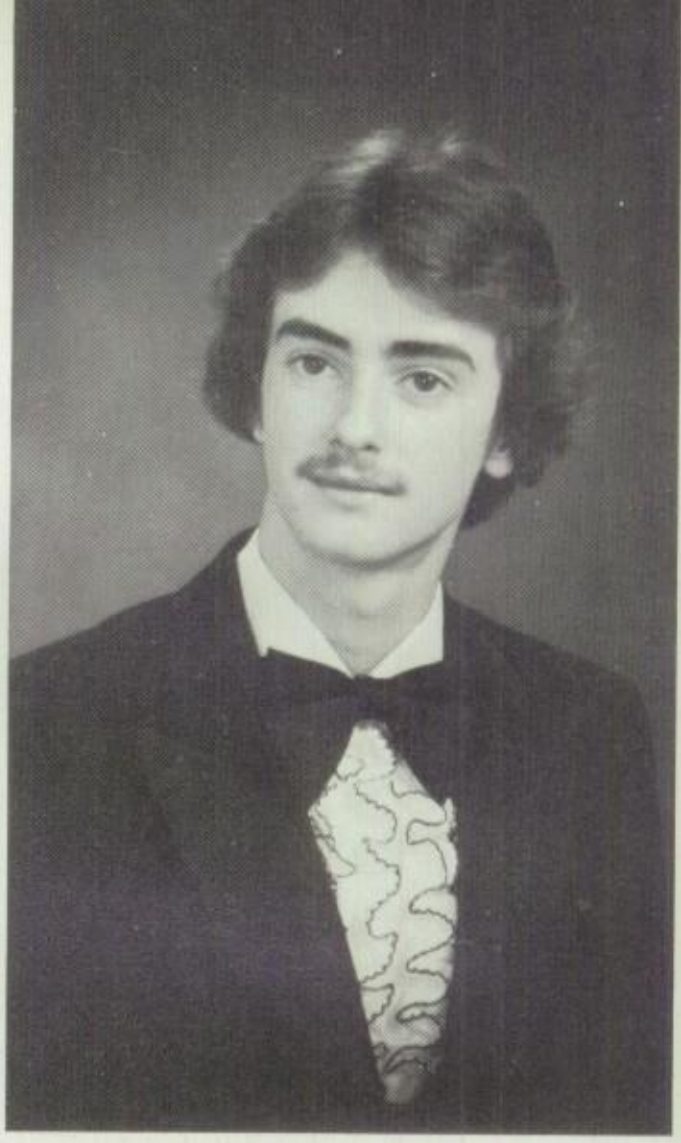
Janice Brewster
If there's anything I can't stand, it's someone who talks while I'm interrutping.



Johnny Brewster
Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.



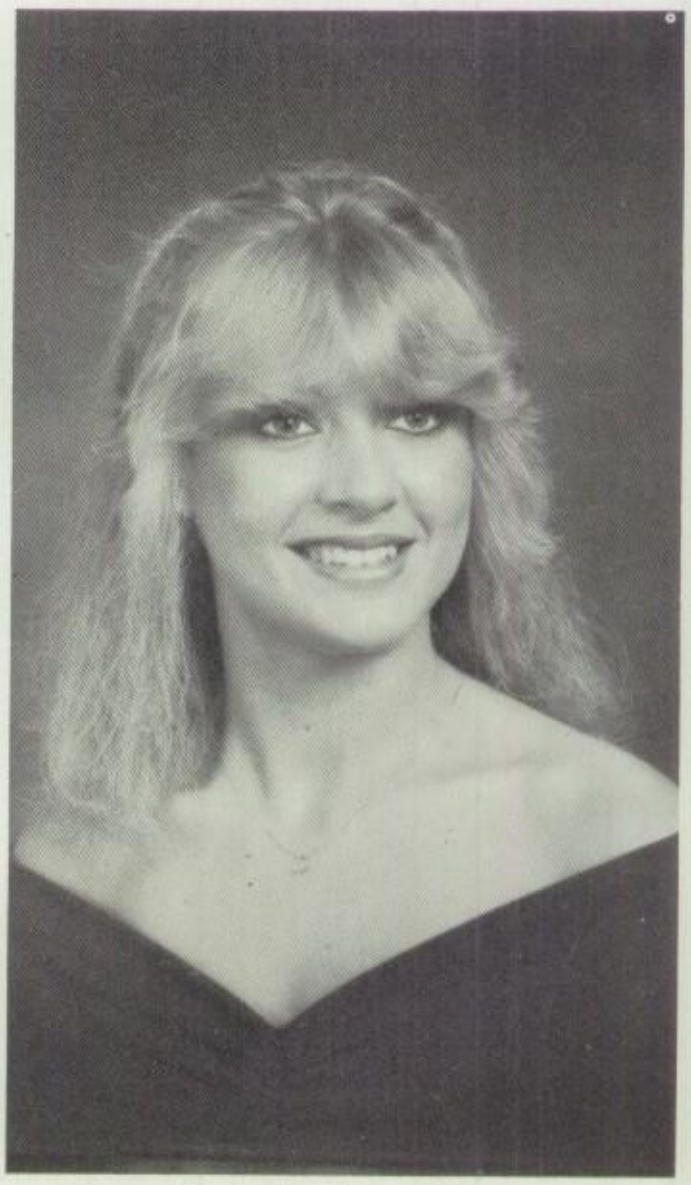
Tim Brewster
When I finally got it all together, I forgot where I put it.



Kenny Brown
You'll never know how much I appreciate you, because I'll probably never tell you.

Cheryl Bryant
I'm spoiled and I love it!!

Paula Calhoun
Today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.



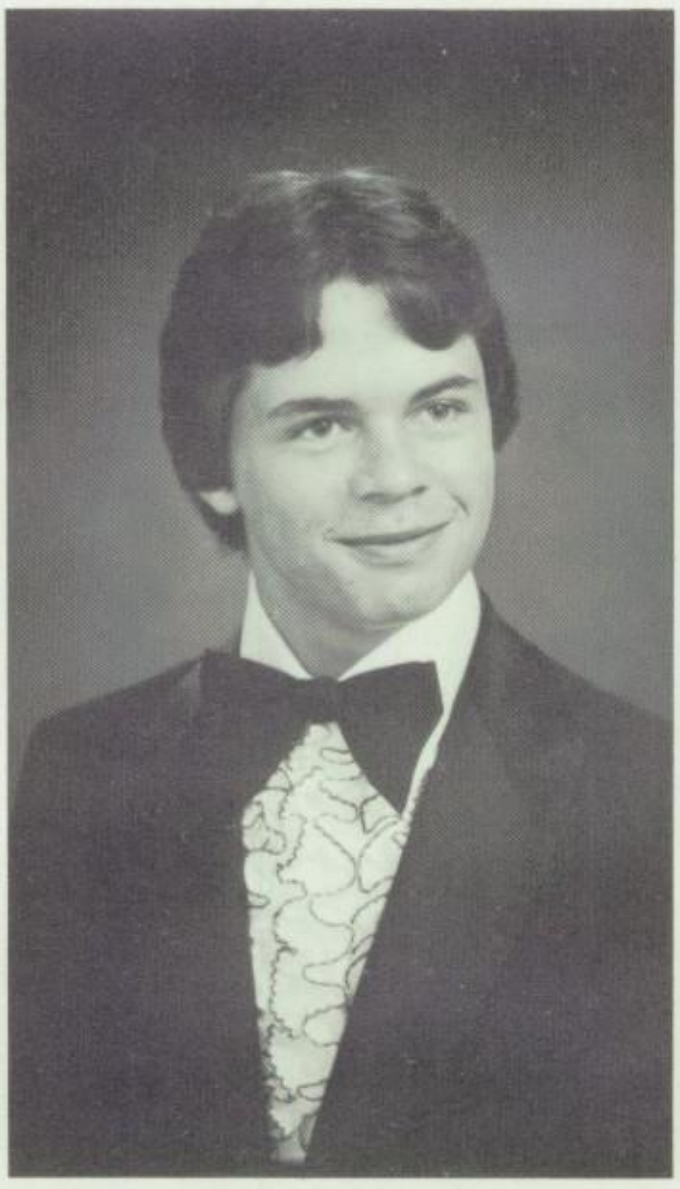
Beverly Christopher
Love is one heart in two bodies.

Dova Clark
By the time you find what makes the world go round, you're too dizzy to care.

Tera Clark
Free bird?

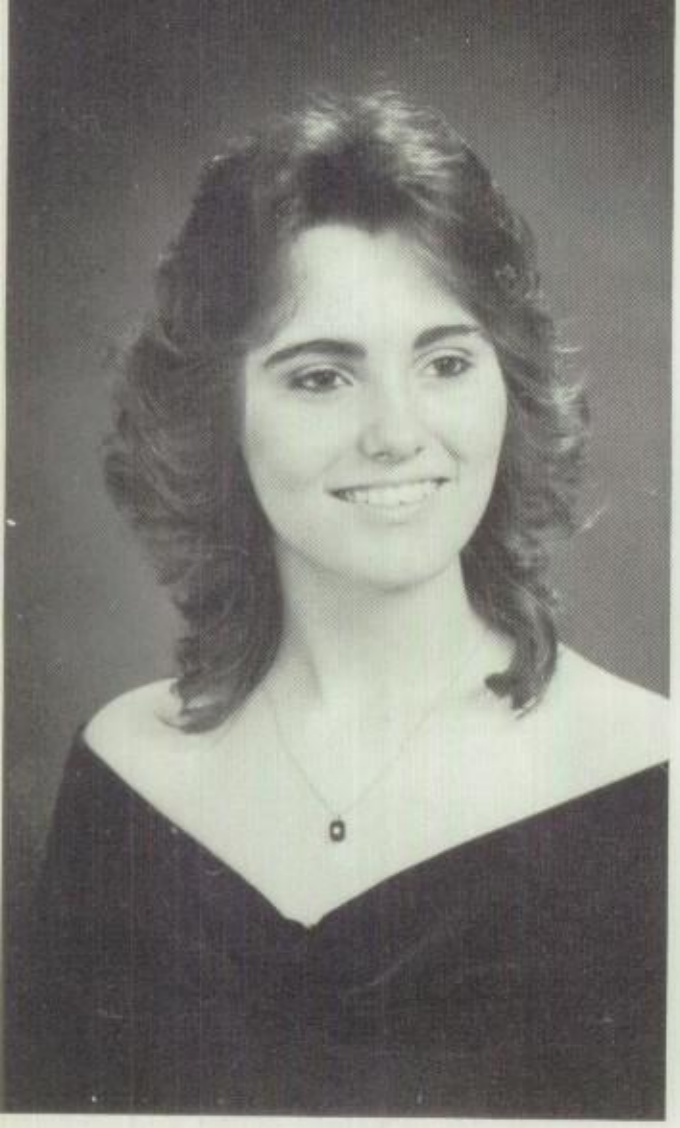
Celia Cofield
Did someone say, "Party?"

Annette Conner
Reality is a crutch for people who can't let themselves dream.

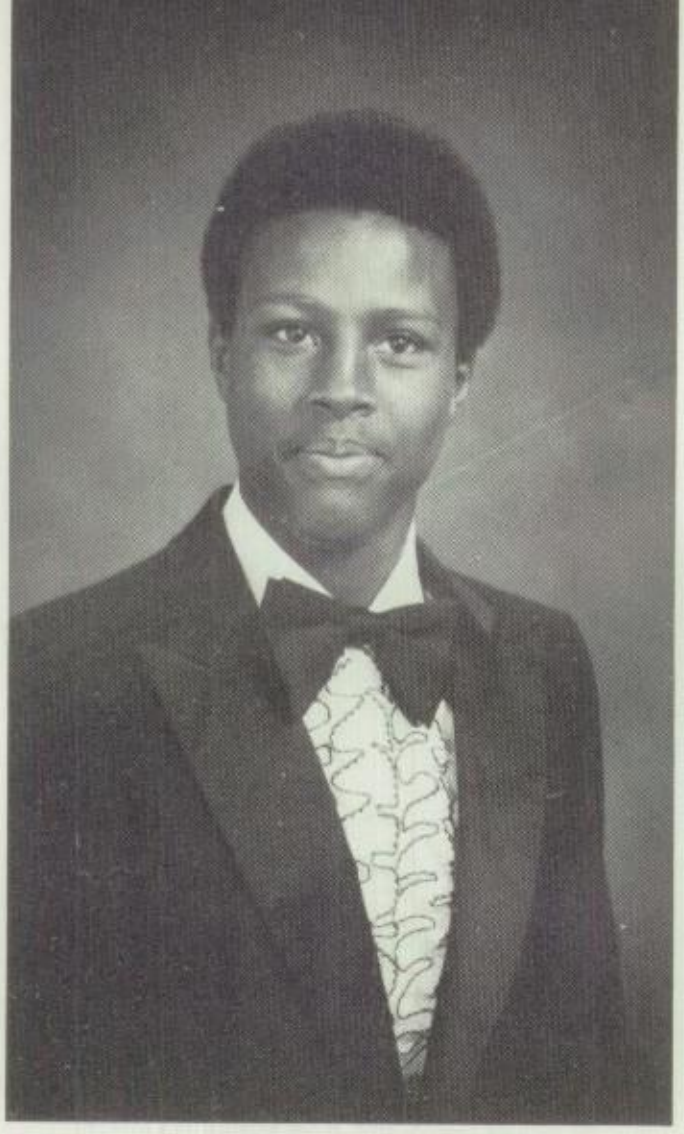


James Cowan
Be kind, sweet, and always with a smile, but never underestimate the one you love.

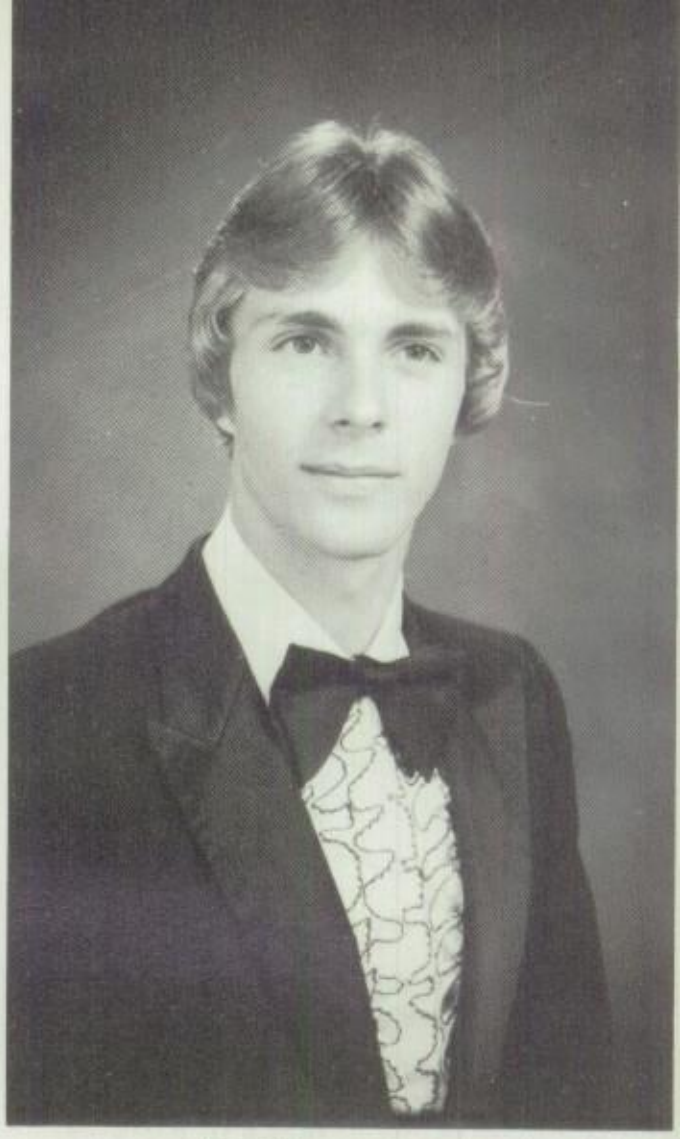
Sharon Cox
Love wasn't put in our hearts to stay, love isn't love till we give it away.



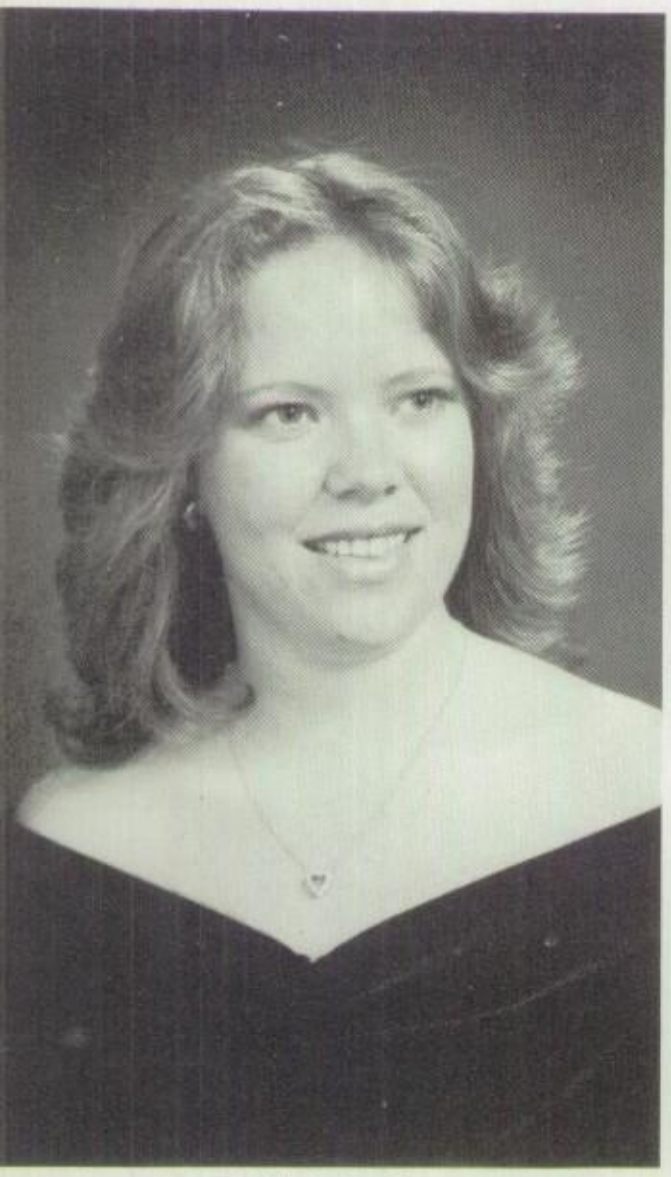
Patty Davis
True love is a century that lasts a second.



Lewis Douthitt
I may not be easy to reach, but I may be worth it.

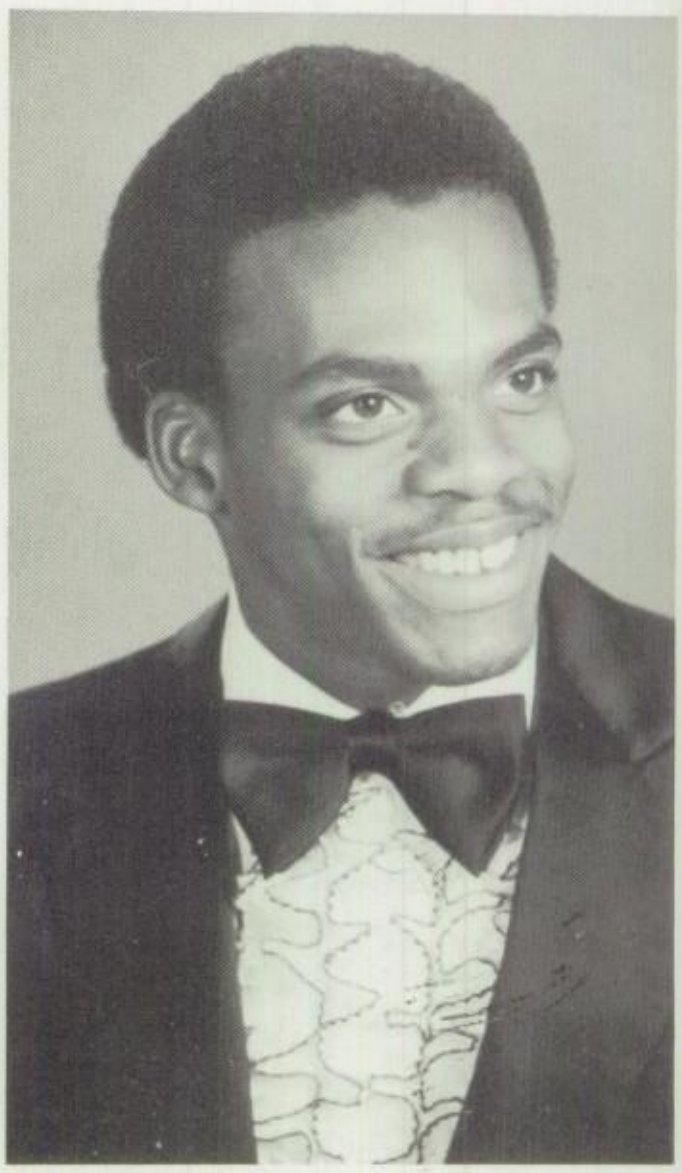


DeWayne Dover
Just when I thought I had the answer, I forgot the question.



Debbie Duke
There's not enough time in this world for love, so why waste what you've got on hate?

Melissa Dunaway
Time flies, sun rises and shadows fall. Let time go by. Love is forever.

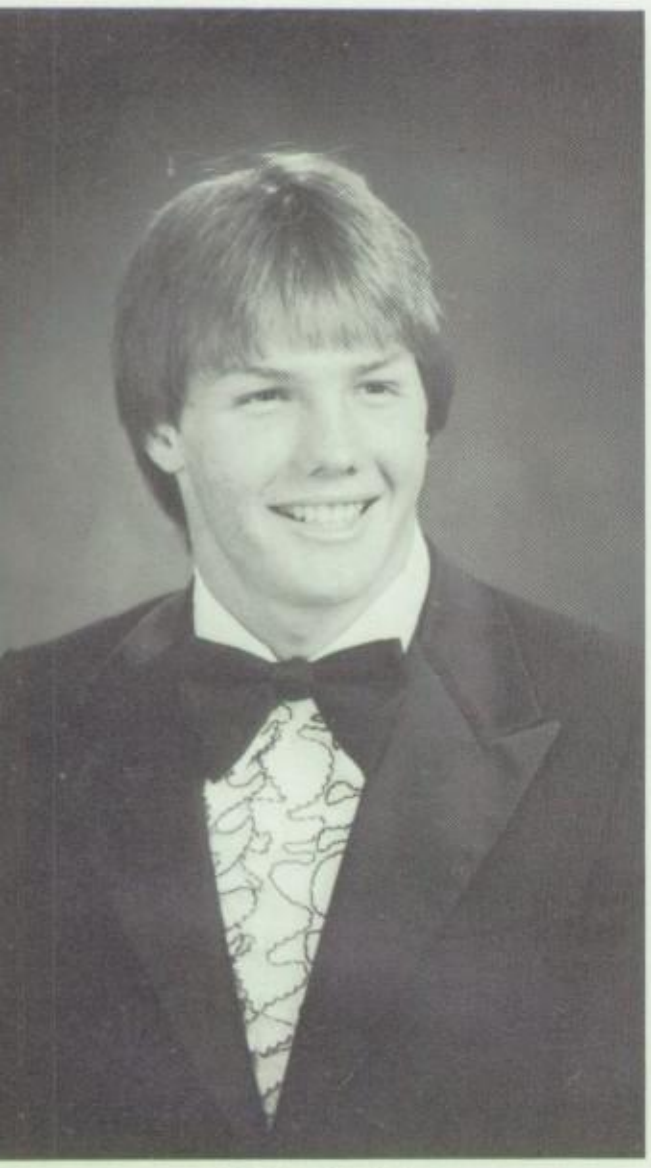


Seamonde Etheridge
Whenever I feel like studying, I lie down till the feeling goes away.

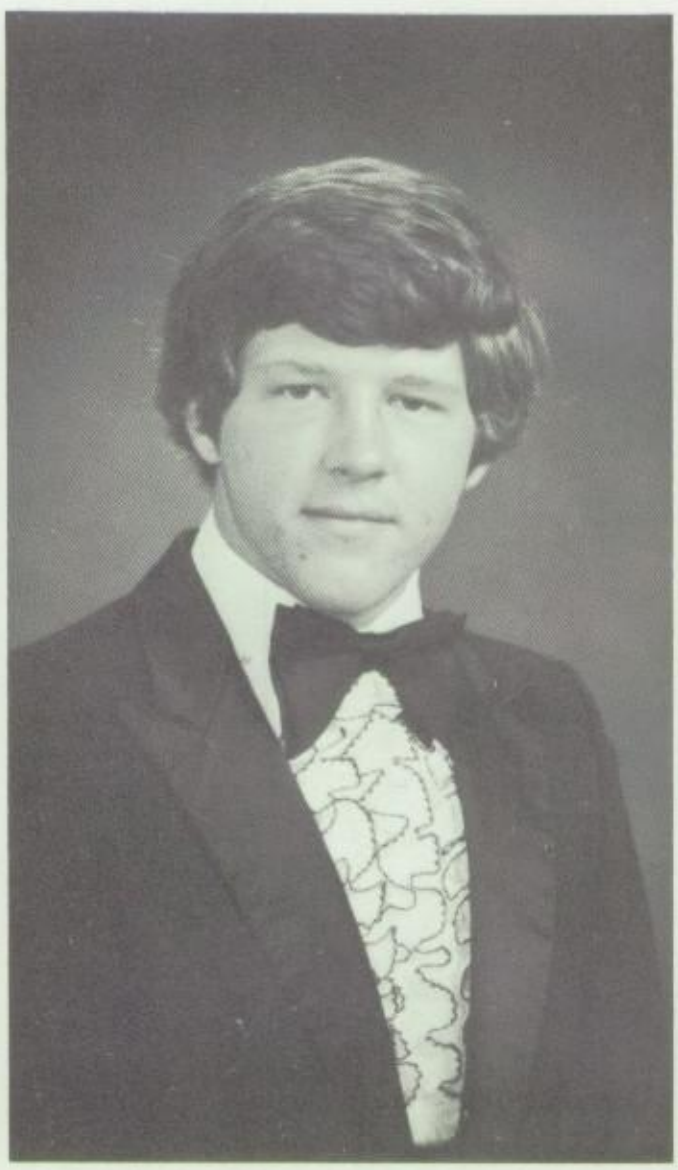
Laura Finch
My tastes are simple, I like to have the best.

June Freeman
Some people make the world special just by being in it.

Teresa Gaddy
Without honesty there is no truth; without truth there is no love; without love there is nothing.

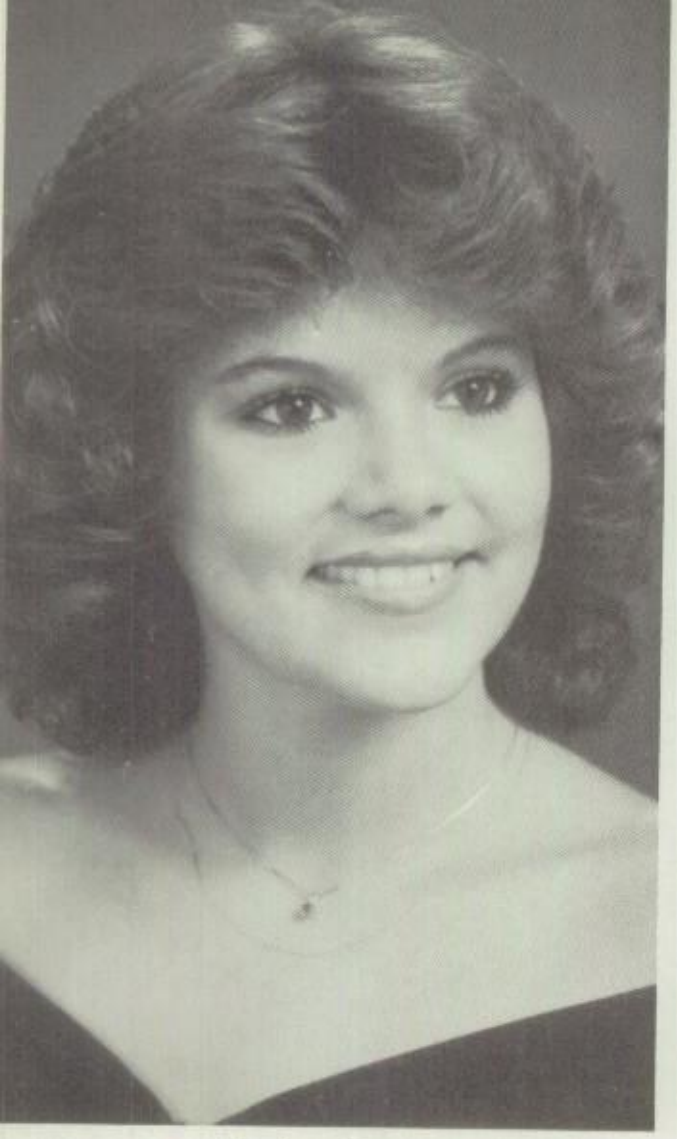


Ricky Gallahar
Losing isn't one of my best qualities.

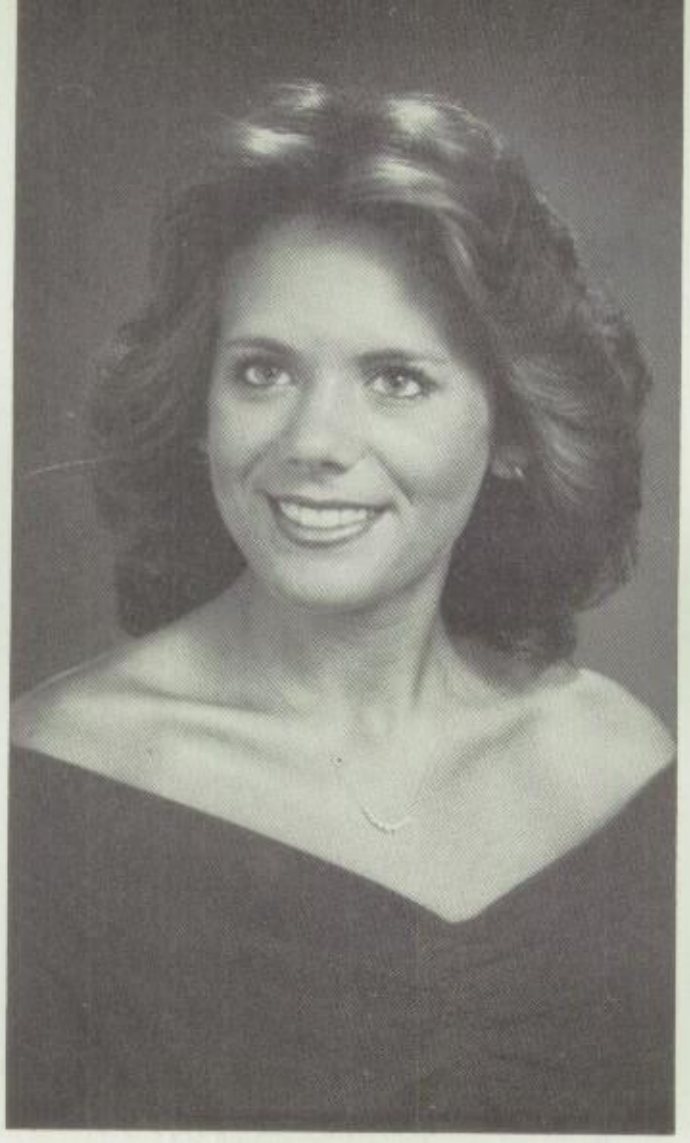


Jerry Gill
The farther you reach, the farther you will go.

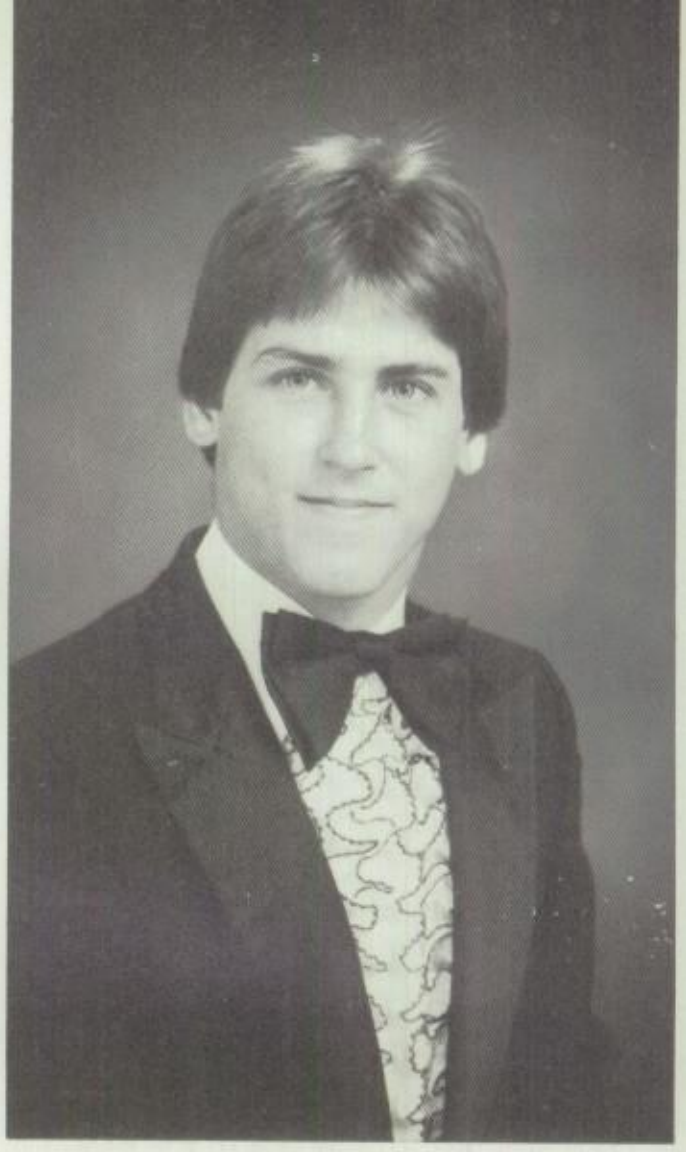
Jennifer Gillialand
I am easy to please as long as I get my way.



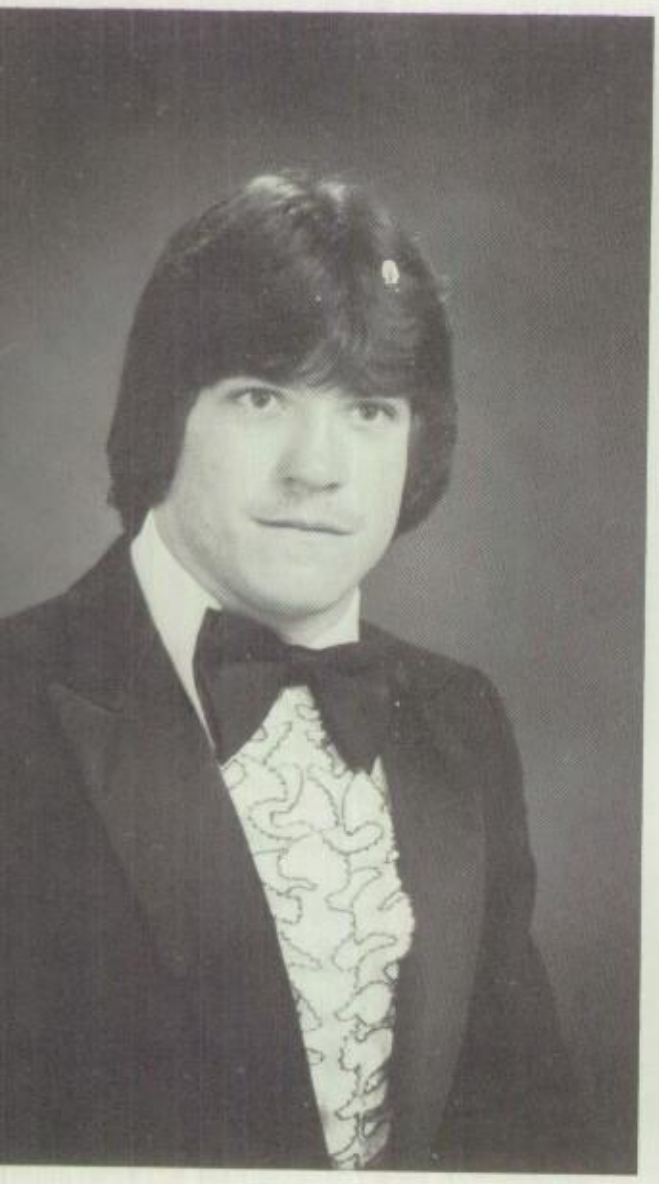
Regina Gower
We grow in the image of those we love.



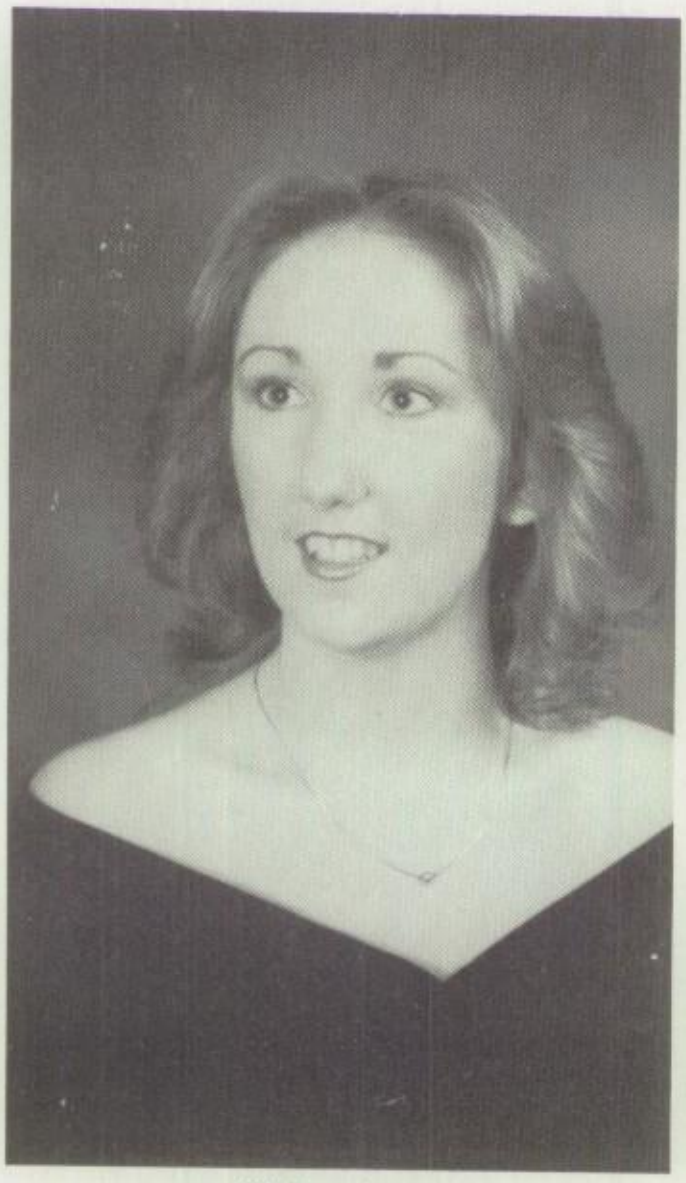
Leeanne Hamby
Music and dance lift my spirits and enrich my life.



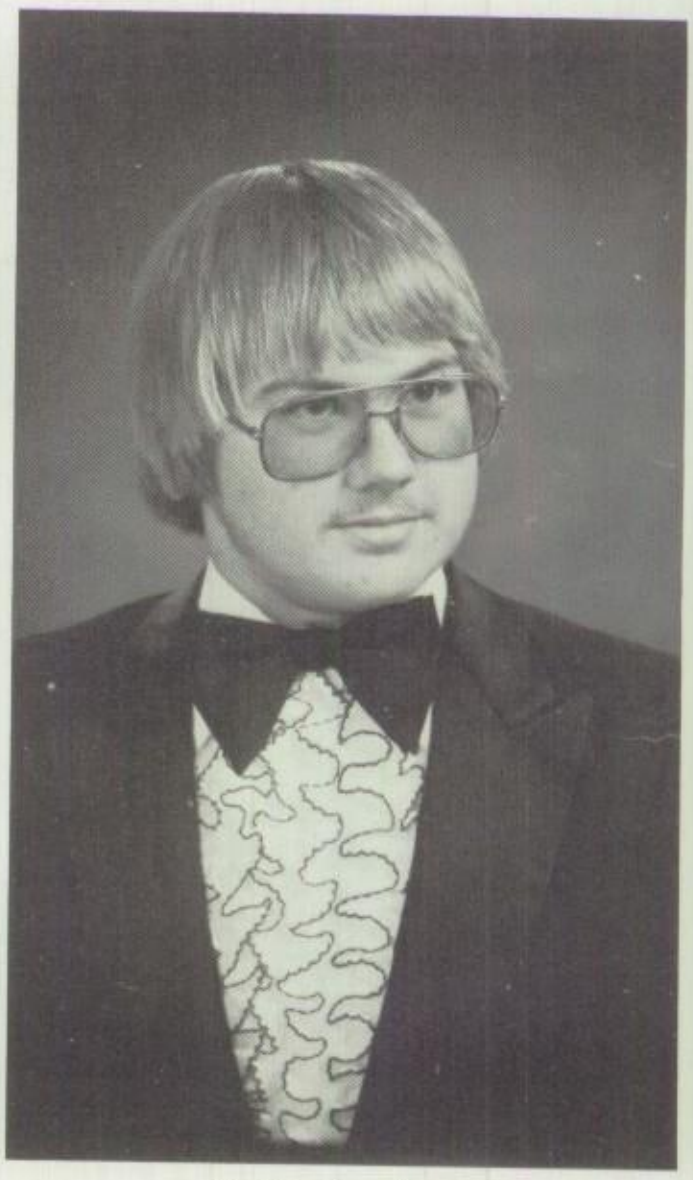
Bruce Haynes
Greater men than I have lived, but they're all dead.



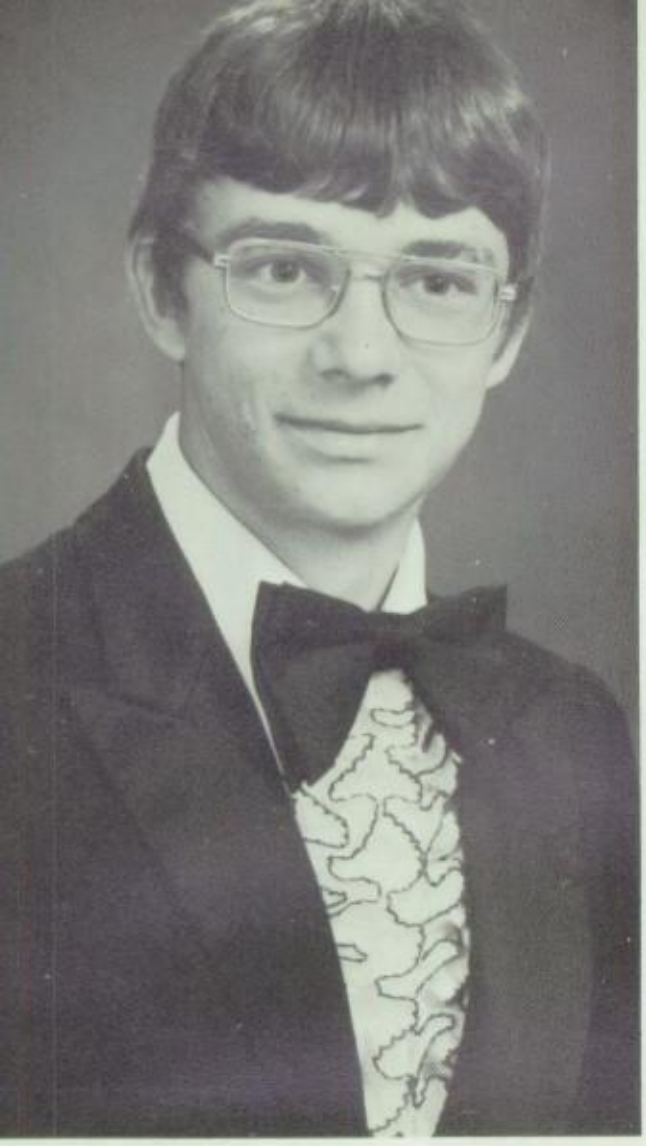
Terry Haynes
lon't need a great deal of love, but I do need a eady supply.



Jill Henderson
What you are is God's gift to you, what you make of your life is your gift to God.



Robin Henderson
I don't know where I'm going, but I am going.

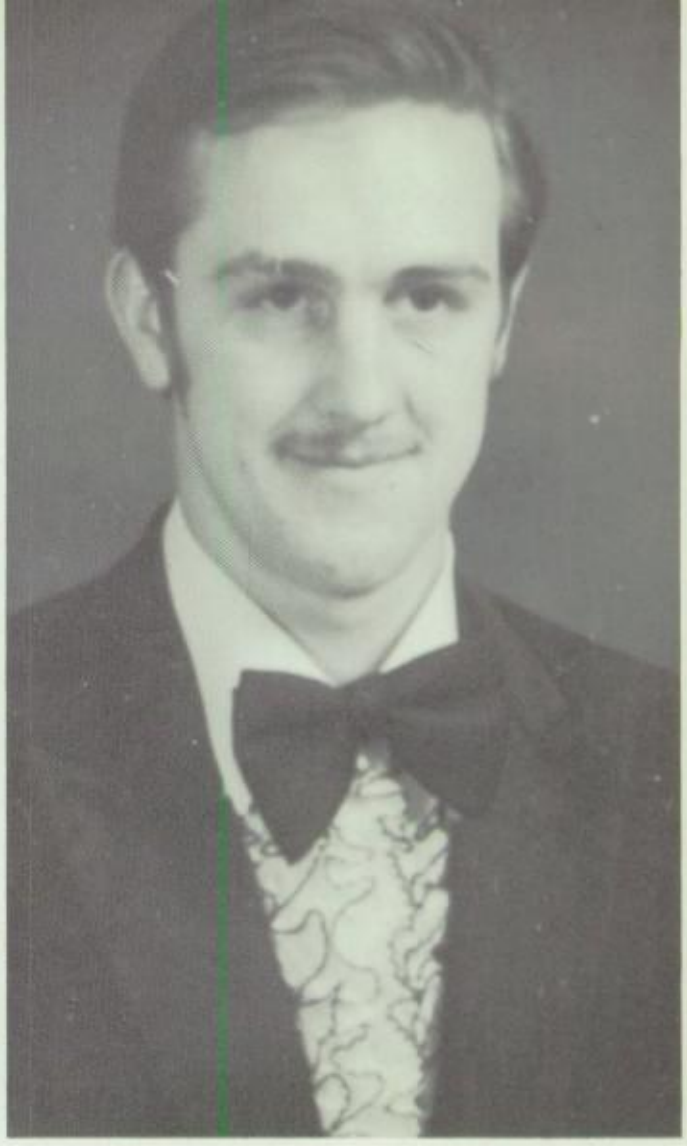


Dewayne Hightower

we learn from our mistakes, I oughta be a enius.

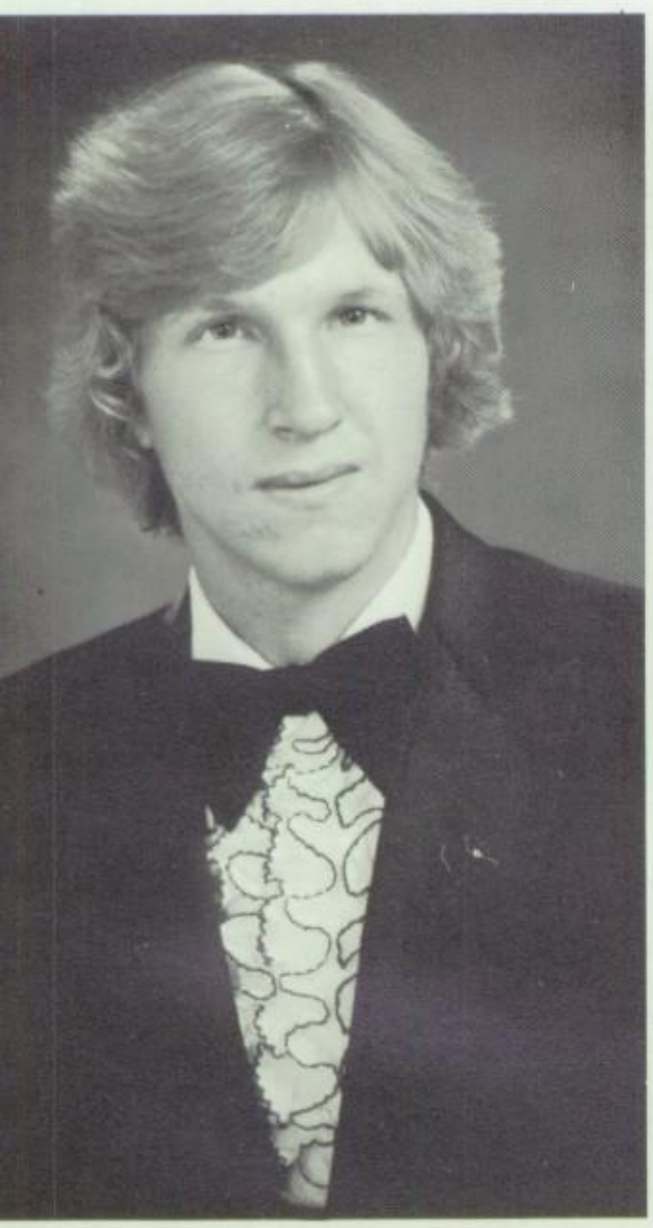
Lana Howard

I don't need the essentials, it's the luxuries I can't do without.



Wayne Hudson

Life is too important to be taken seriously.

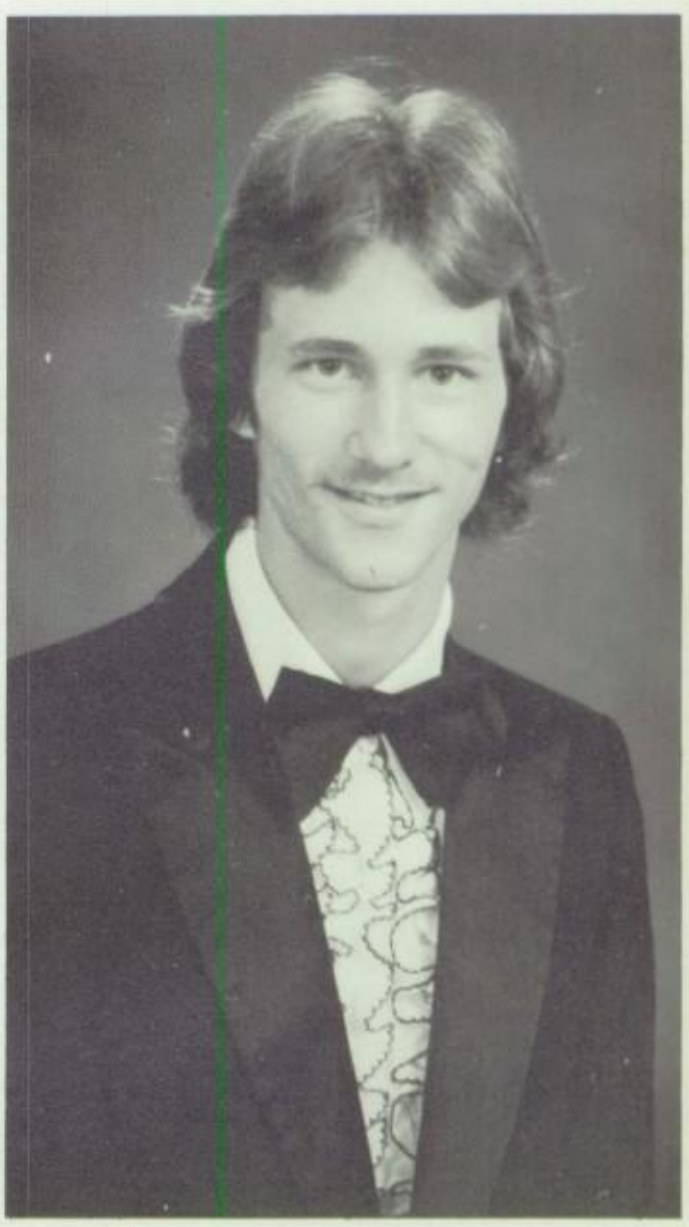


Gene Hyatt

the race to be better or best, don't miss the joy f being.

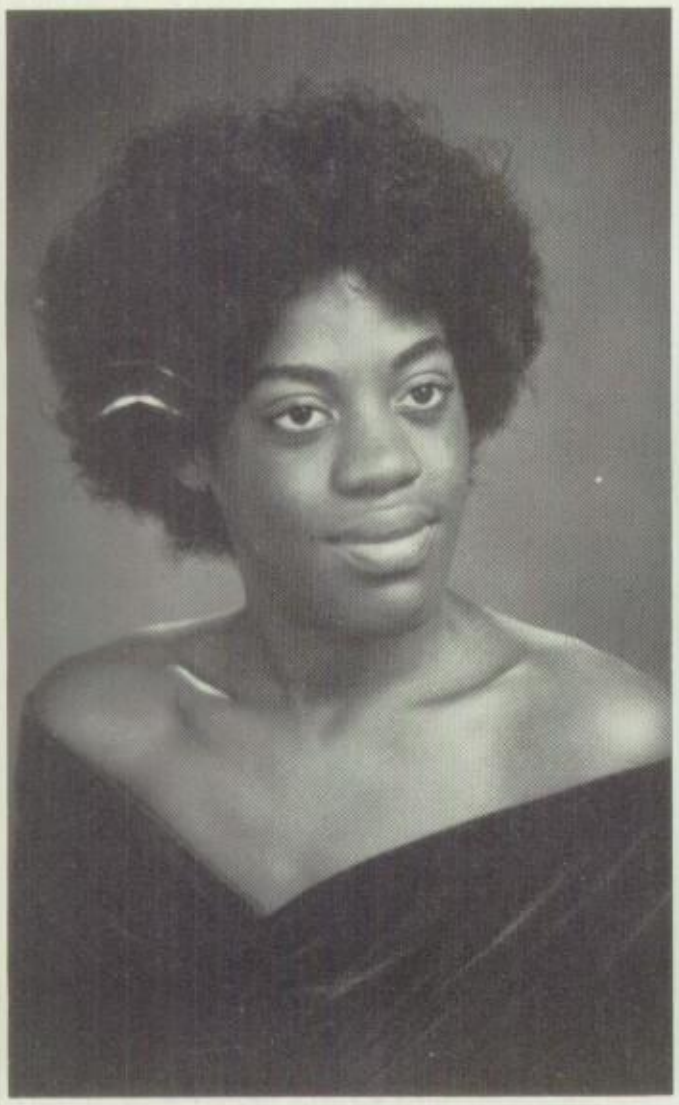
Regina Jackson

Just when you thought you had the puzzle of life put together, someone hands you another piece.

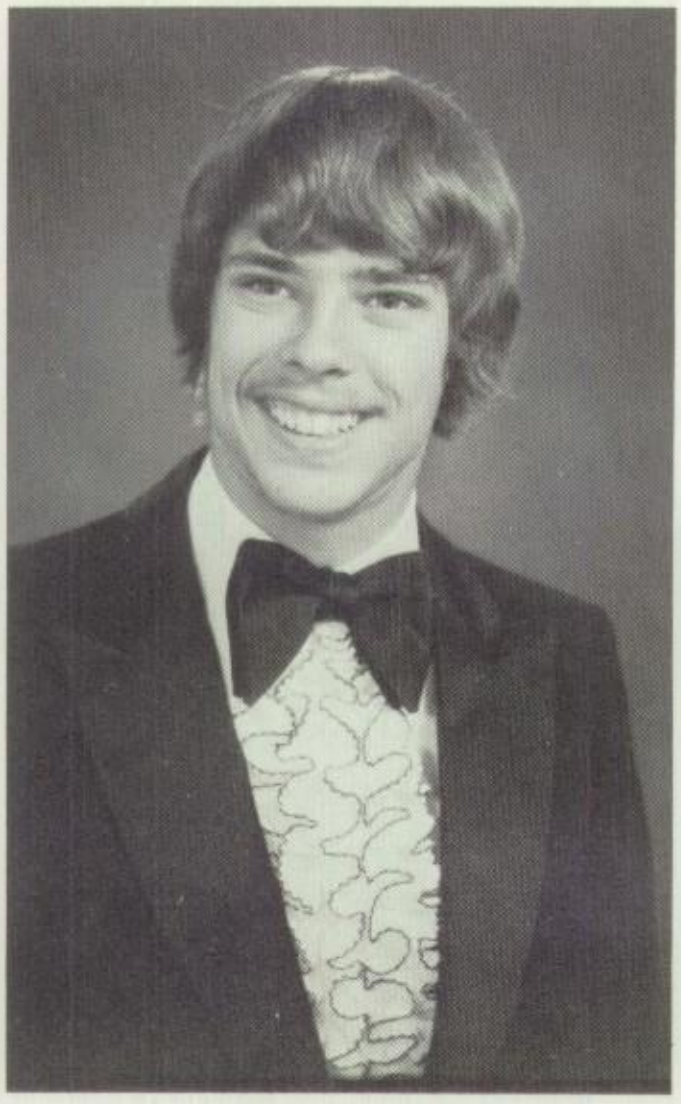


James Johnson

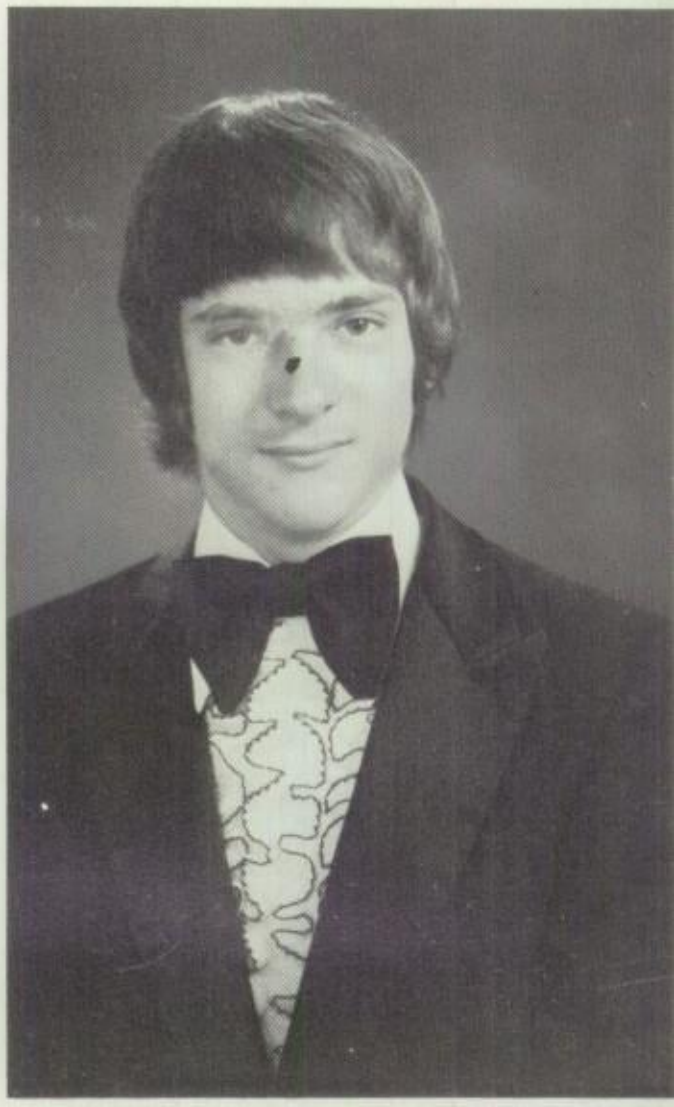
You can't undo what you have already done, because you've done went and done it.



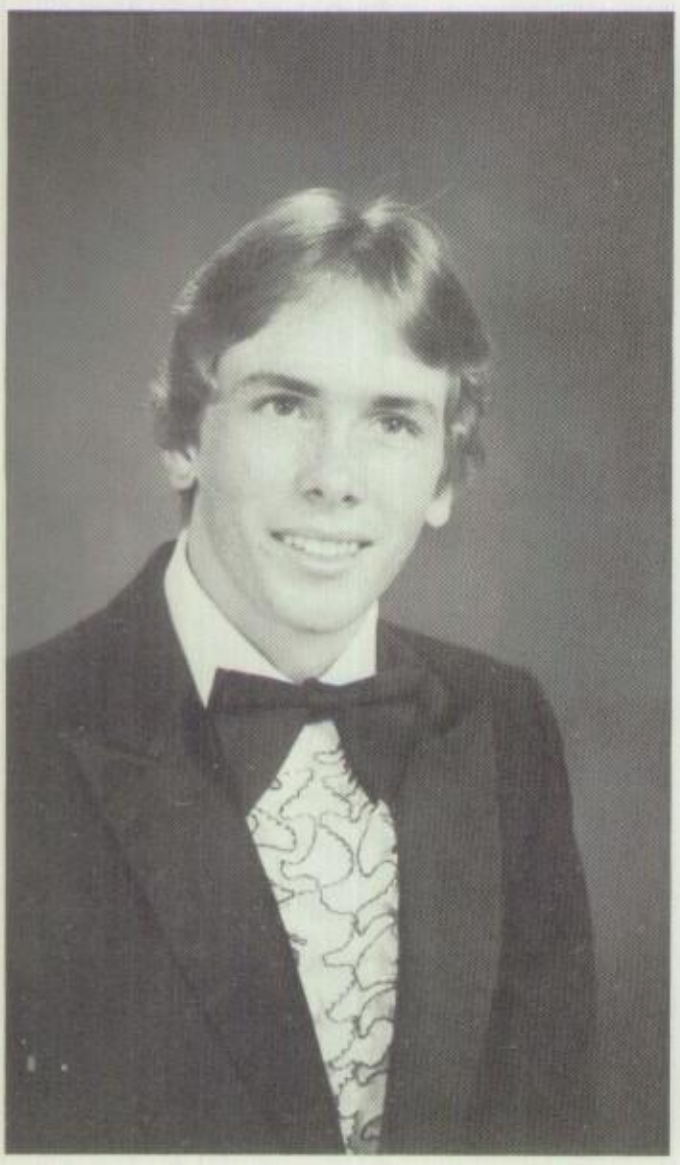
Lisa Johnson
I'm easy to please as long as I have things my way.



Matthew Kilgore
If you want to get anything done, do it yourself.

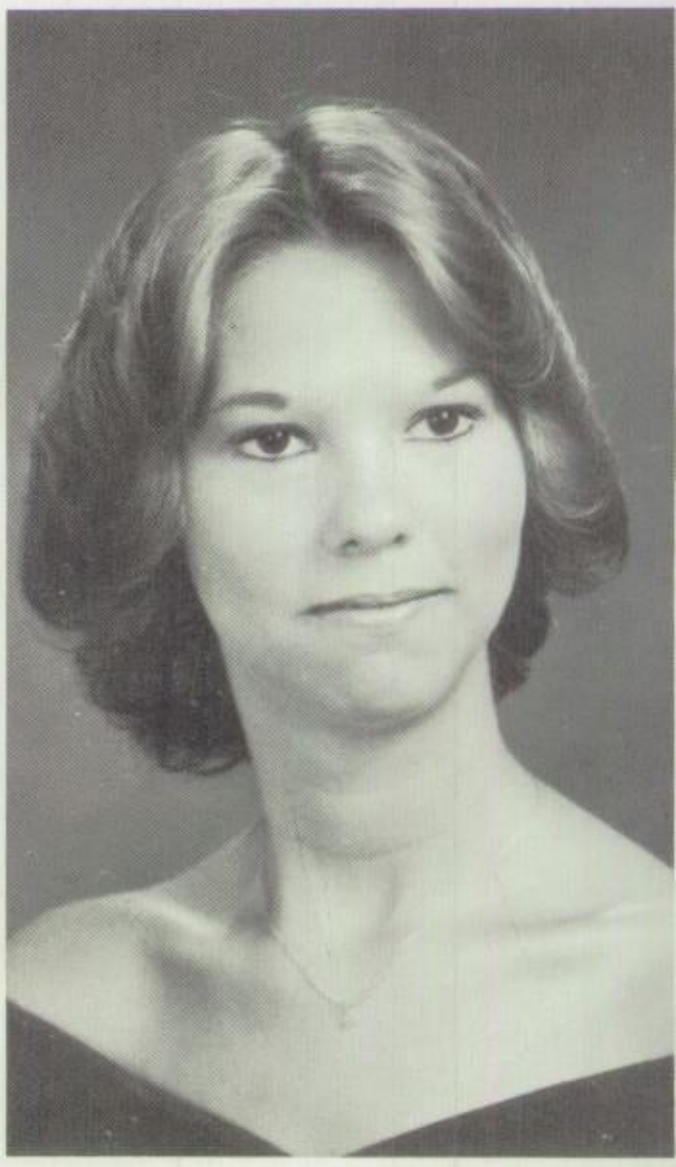


Mike Kilgore
The future belongs to those who dare.

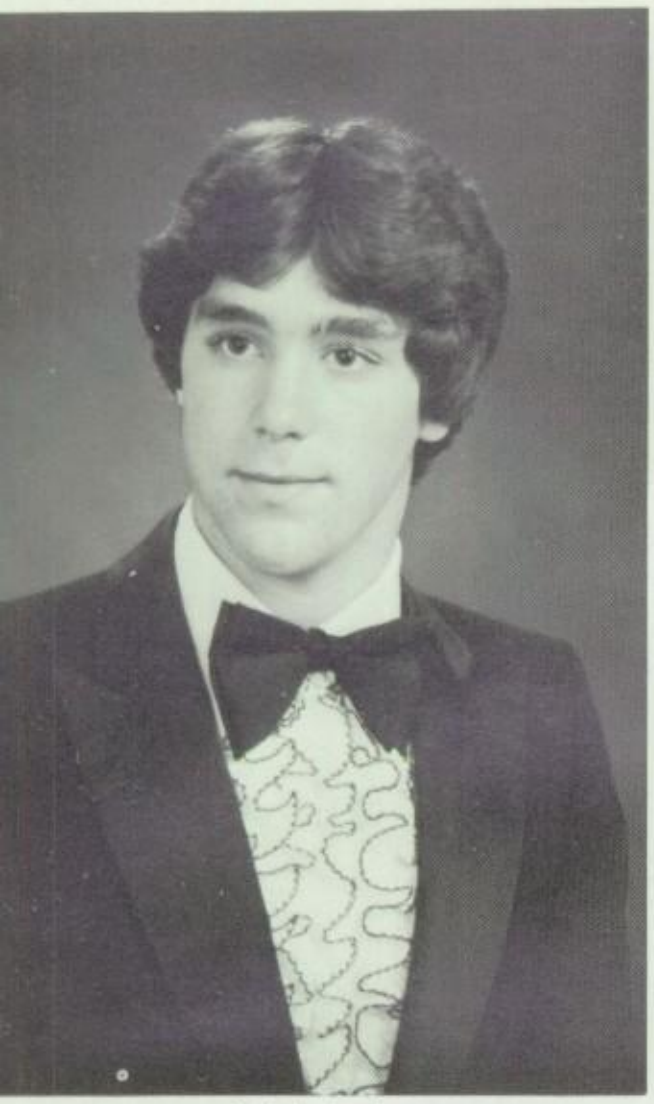


Joey Langston
The way is long, let us go together. The way is difficult, let us help each other. The way is ours alone, let us go.

Anita Lee
You see things as they are and you ask, "Why?" But I dream things that never were and ask, "Why Not?"



Sharon Long
The human heart opens to the heart that opens in return.



Eric Martin

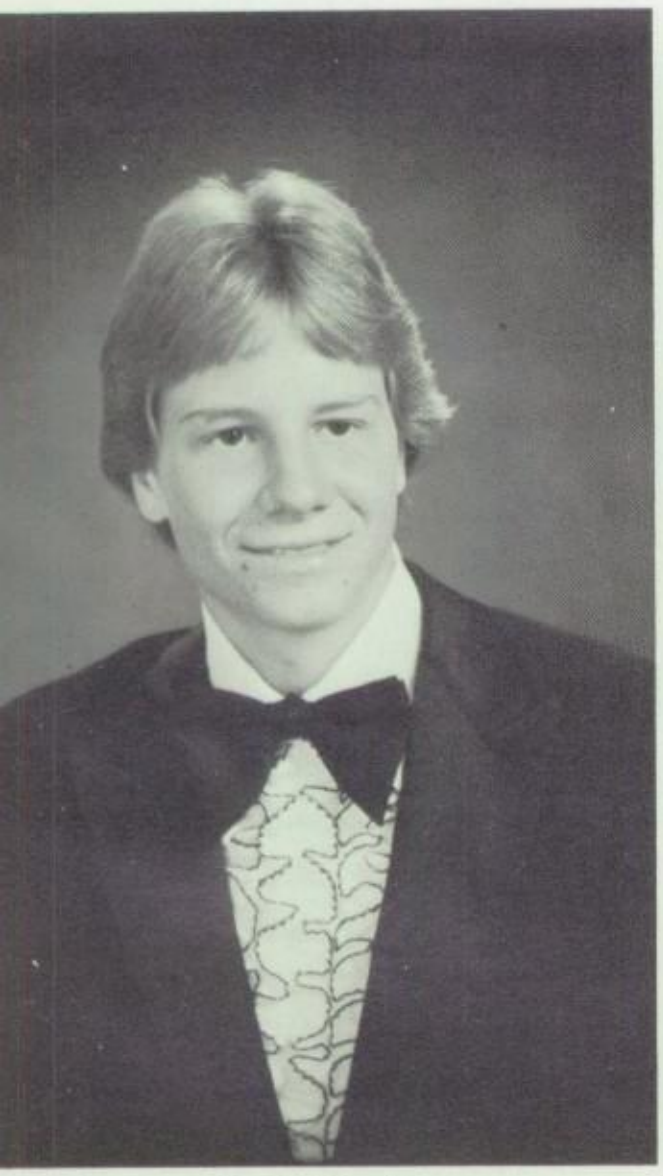
Southern born, Southern bred, and when I'm dead, I'll be Southern dead.

Karin Martin

If you can imagine it, you can dream it. If you can dream it, you can become it.

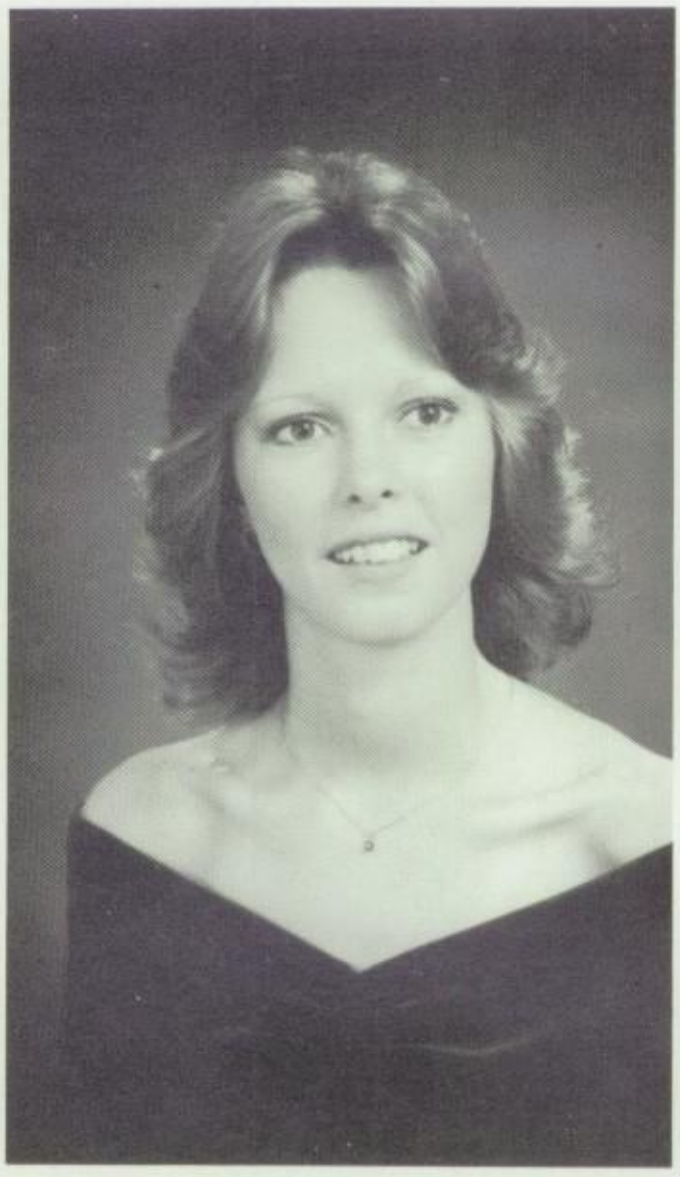
Susan Martin

Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.



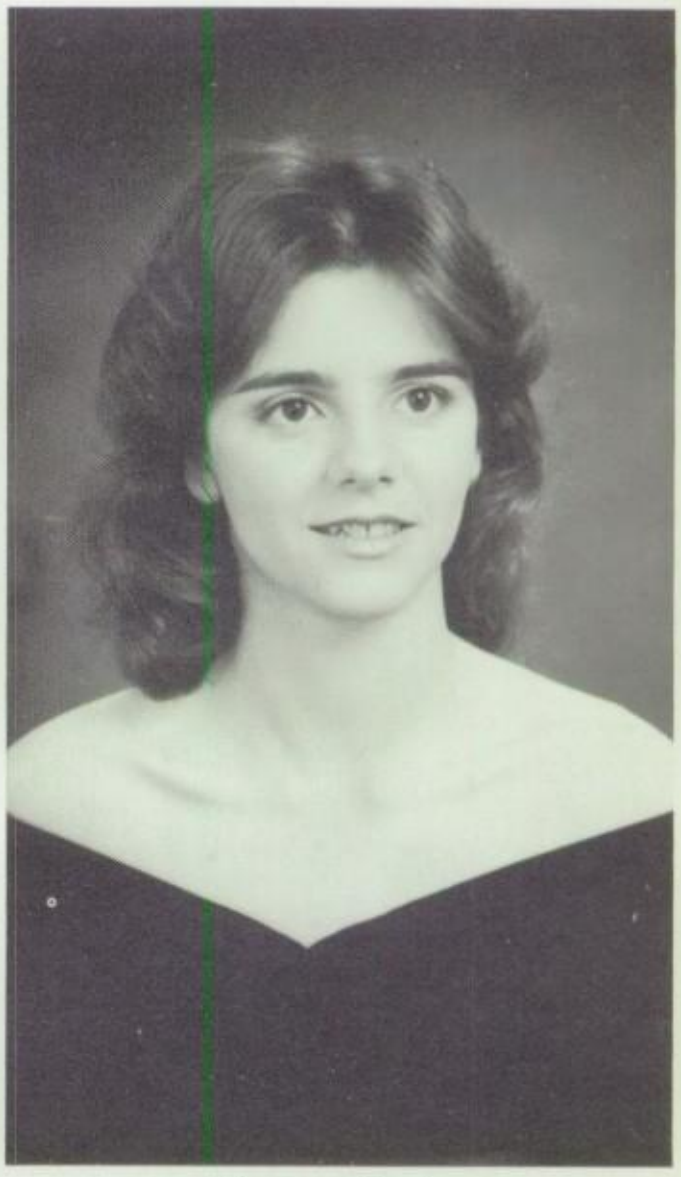
Kelly Morris

"Just bury me by my old black truck, it's pulled me out of many a hole."



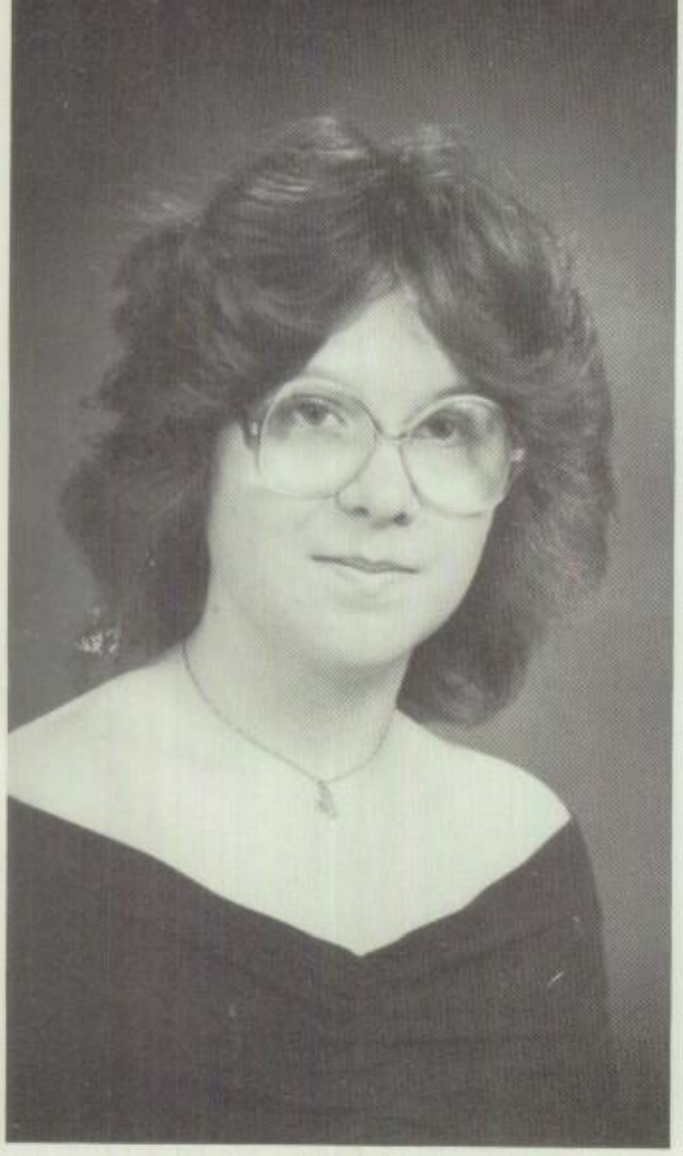
Rita Nance

Trust is the greatest gift one can give another.



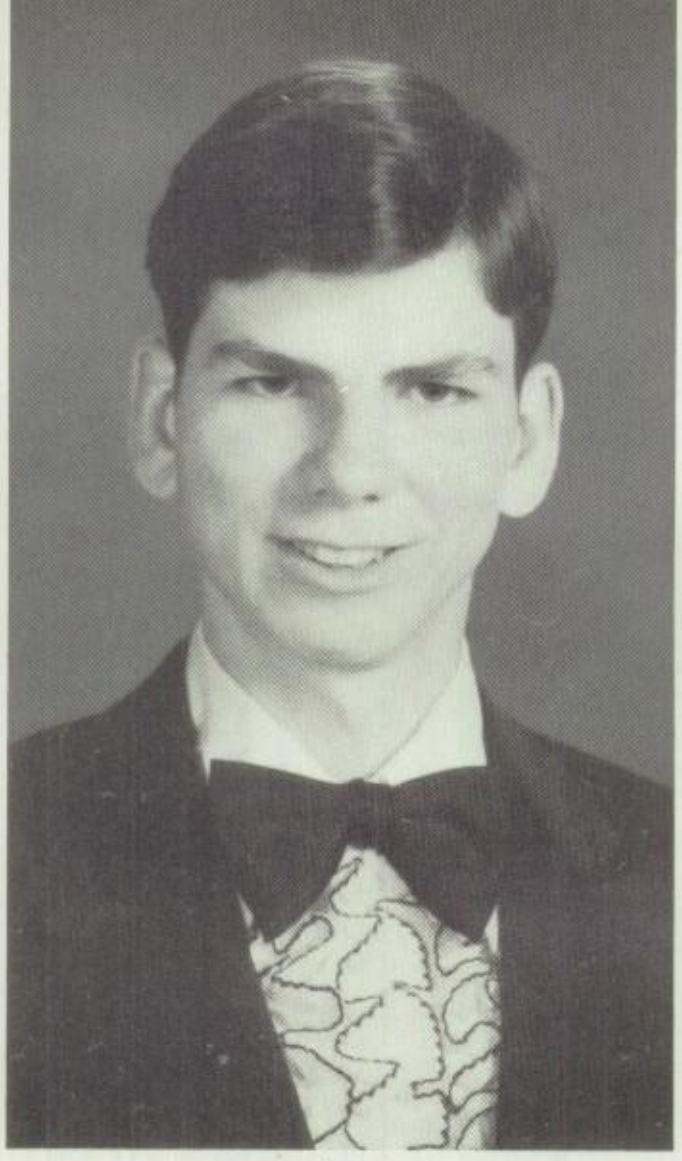
Annese Pardee

He that would live in peace and at east must not speak all he knows nor judge all he sees.



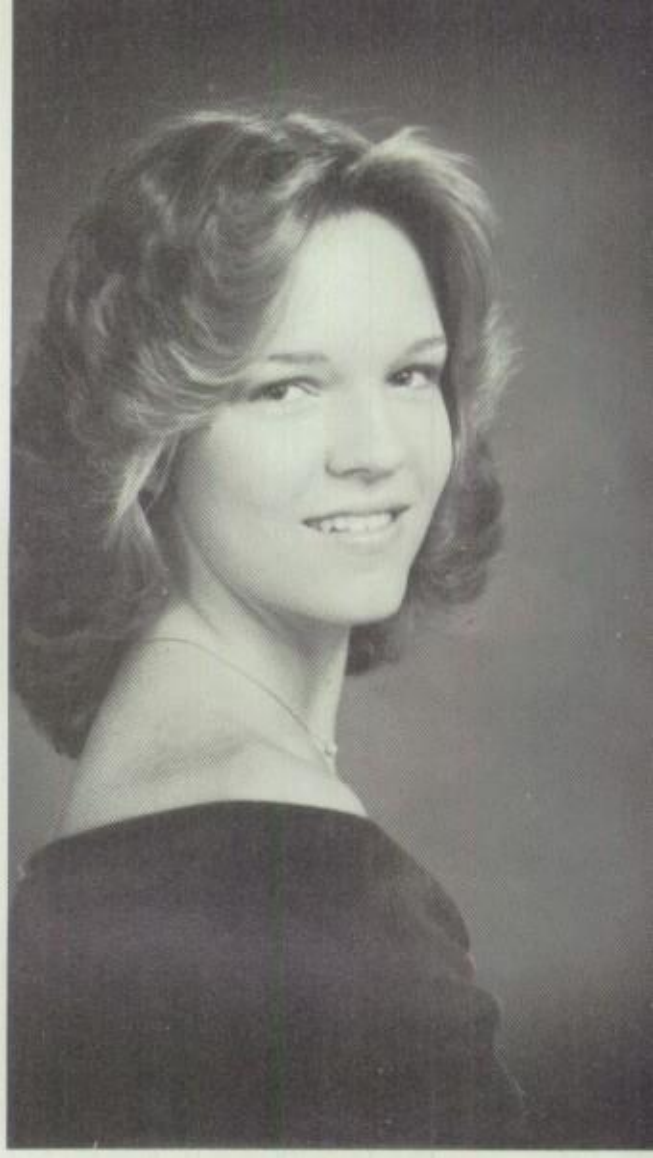
Bertis Phillips

God, help me remember that nothing is going to happen to me today that you and I can't handle.



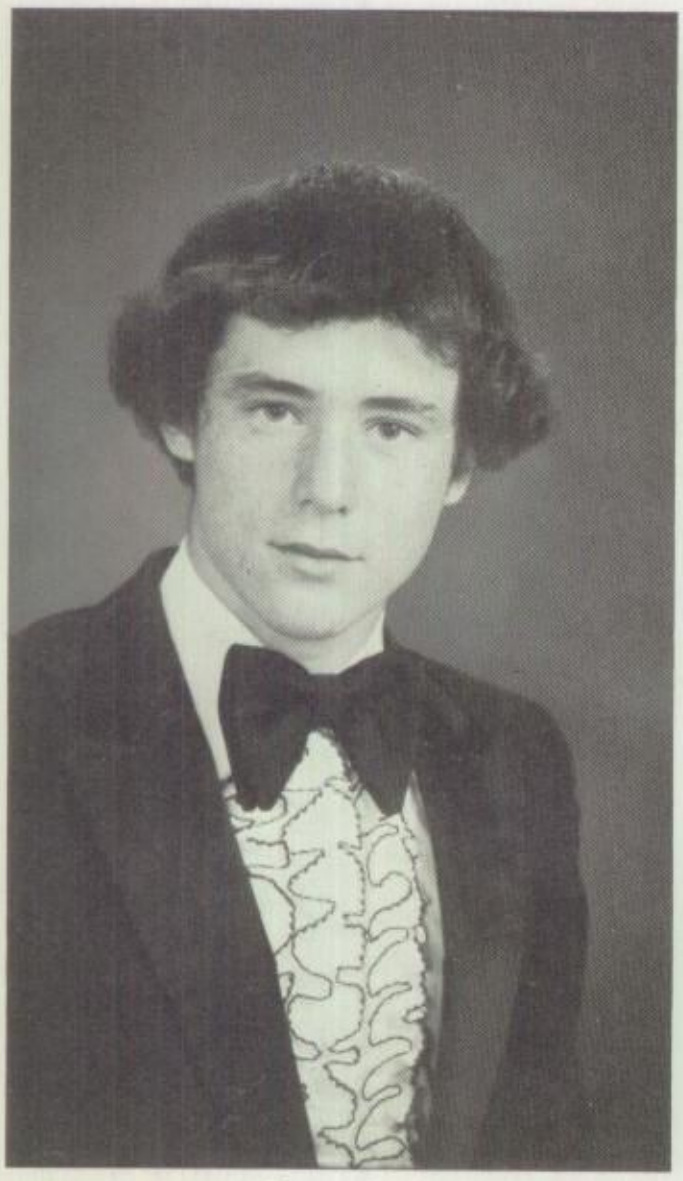
Mark Price

Give instructions to a wise man, and he will yet be wiser; teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.



Donna Reaves

Knowledge is gained by learning, skill by practice, and love by loving.

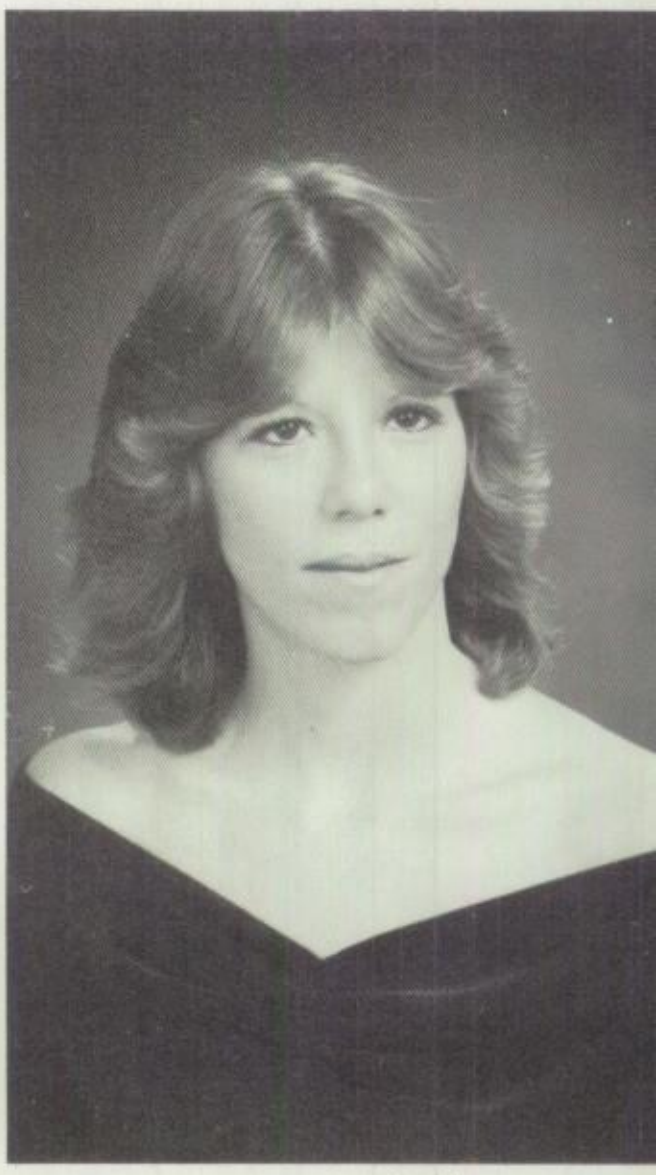


Steve Reaves

The answer is maybe, and that is final.

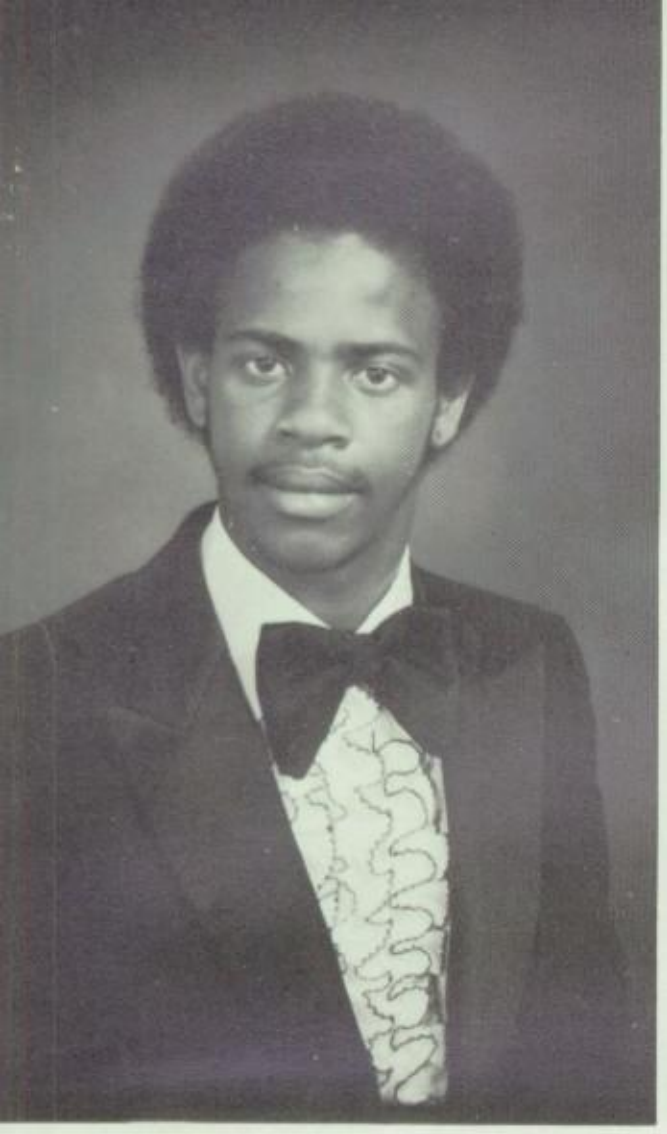
Penny Rudd

If this is the first day of the rest of my life, I'm in a lot of trouble.



Denise Smith

To be different is a wonderful thing.



Duane Smith

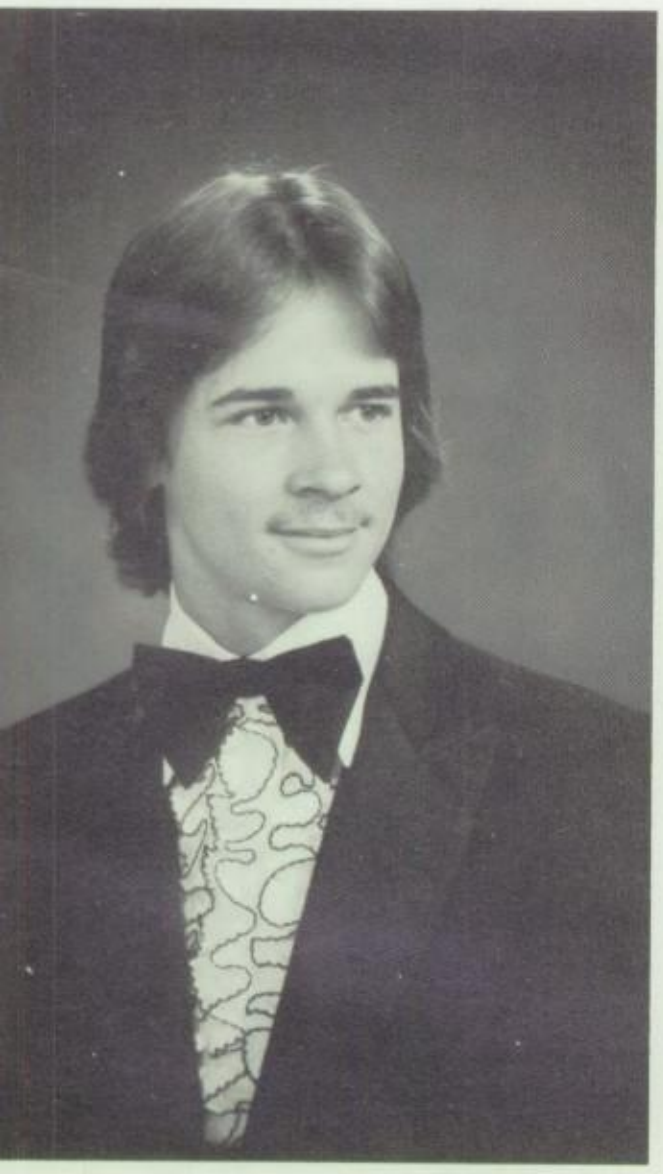
e all you can be, see all you can see, for morrow you may be gone.

Elisa Sturkie

Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Just walk beside me, and be my friend.

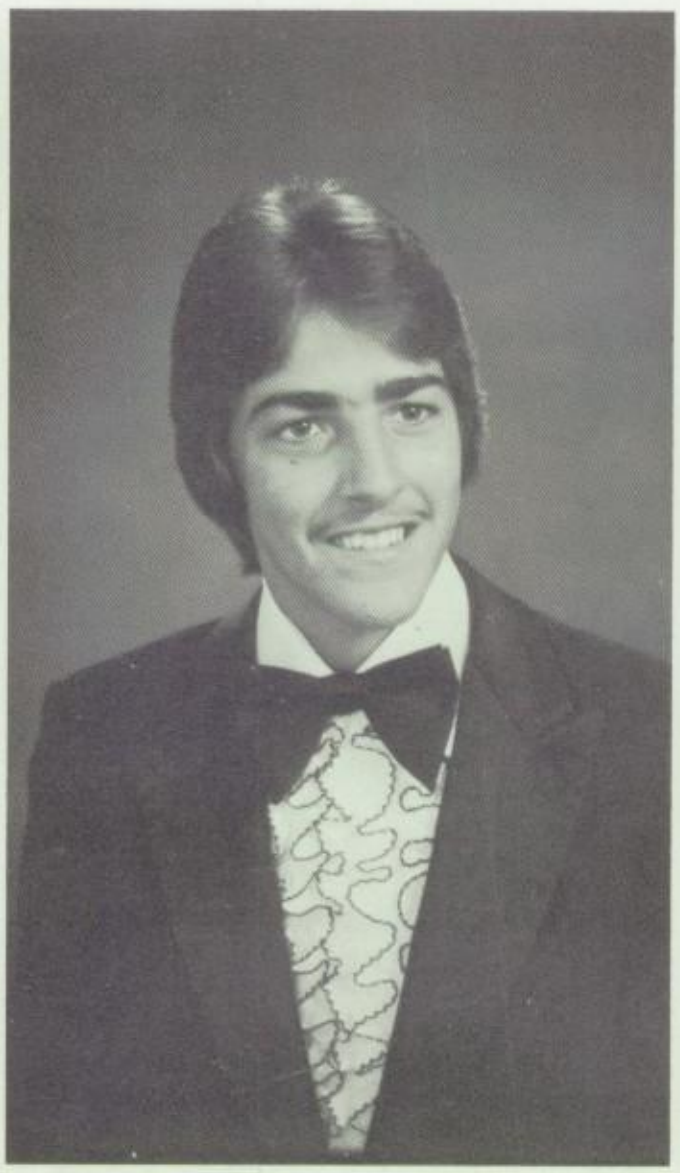
Josie Teague

If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it.



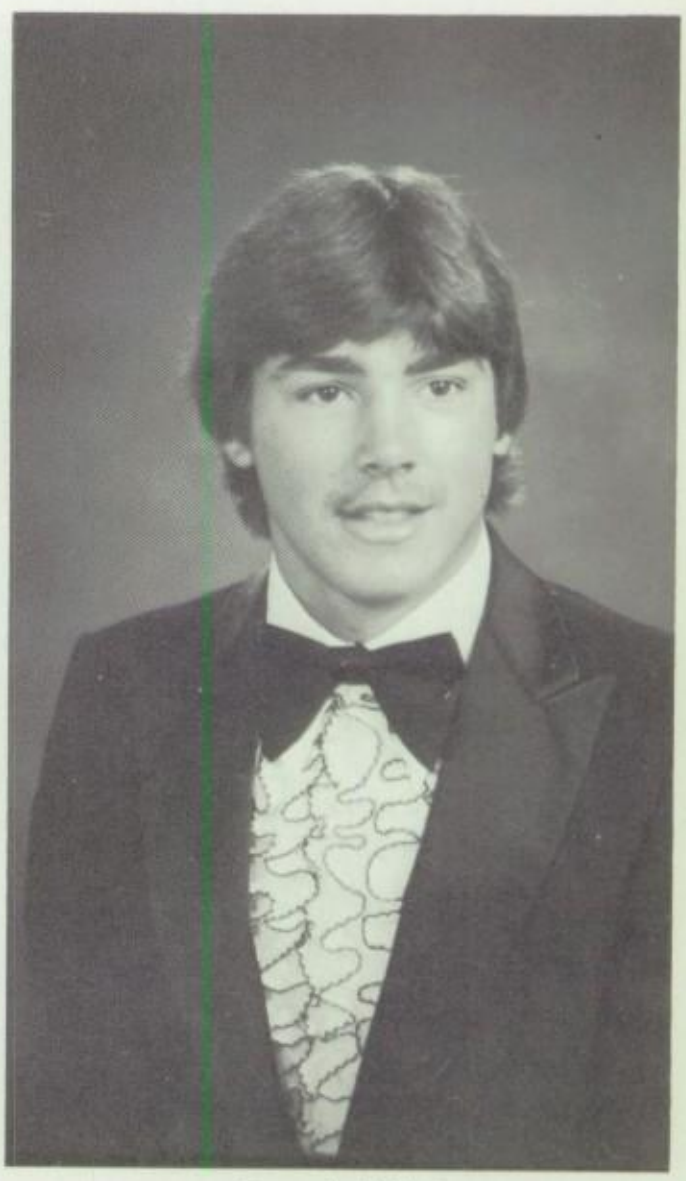
Eugene Thompson

The problem with doing nothing is that you never know when you're through.



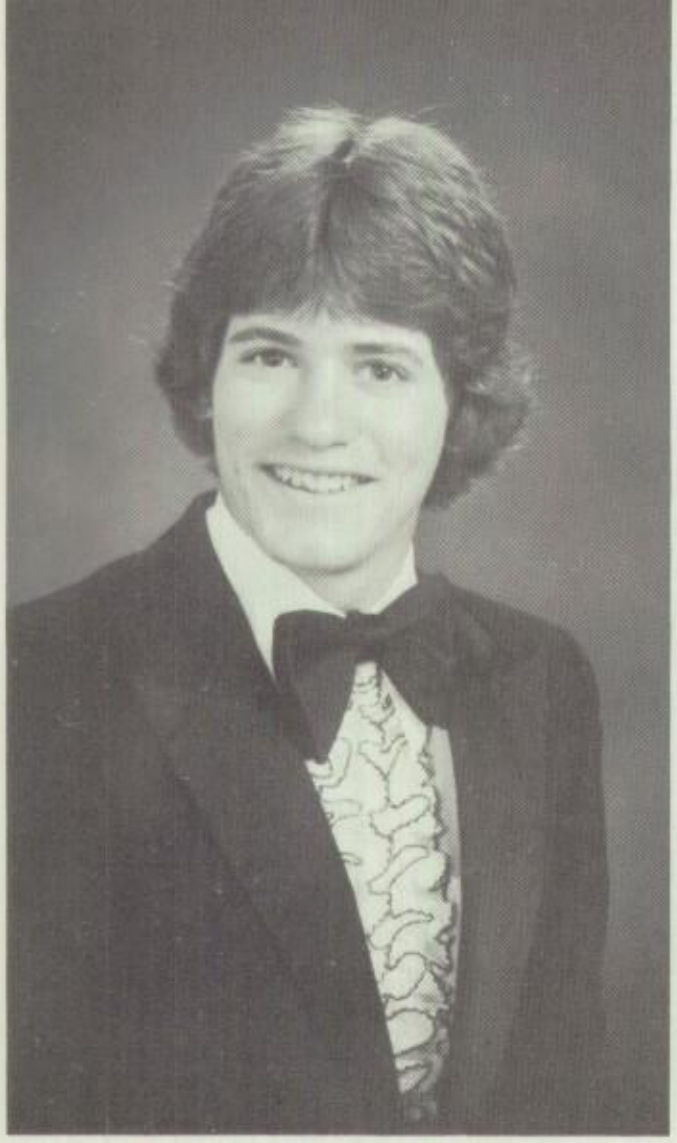
Eramond Usrey

Half of being smart is knowing what you are dumb at.

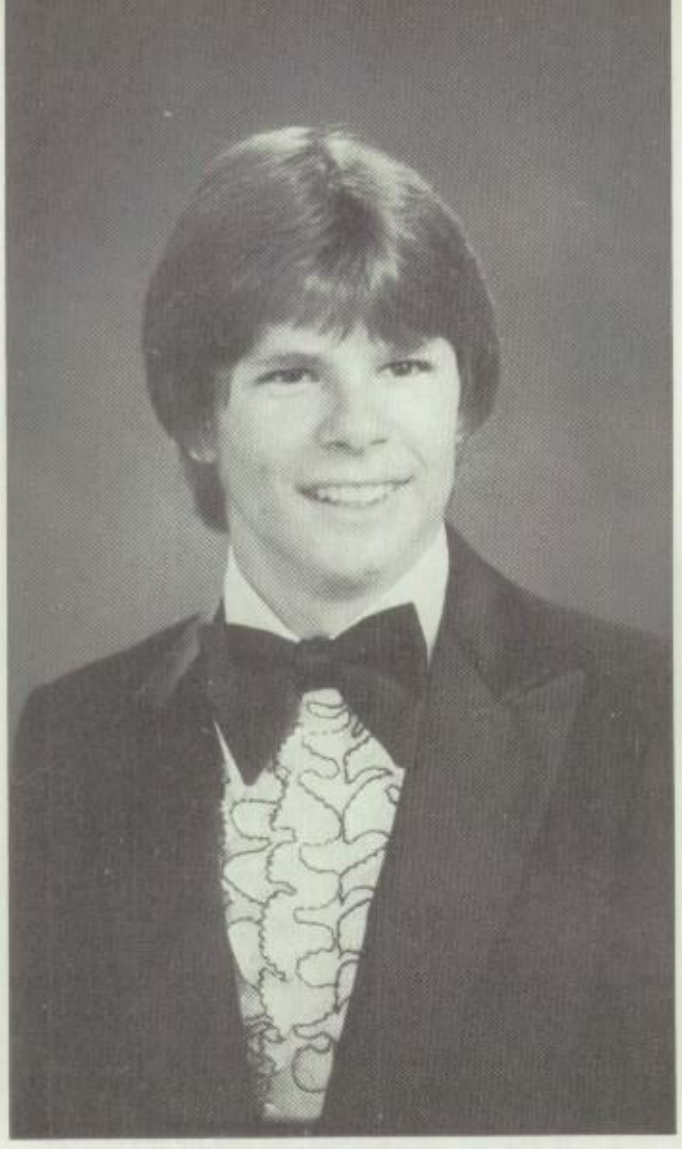


Dennis Watts

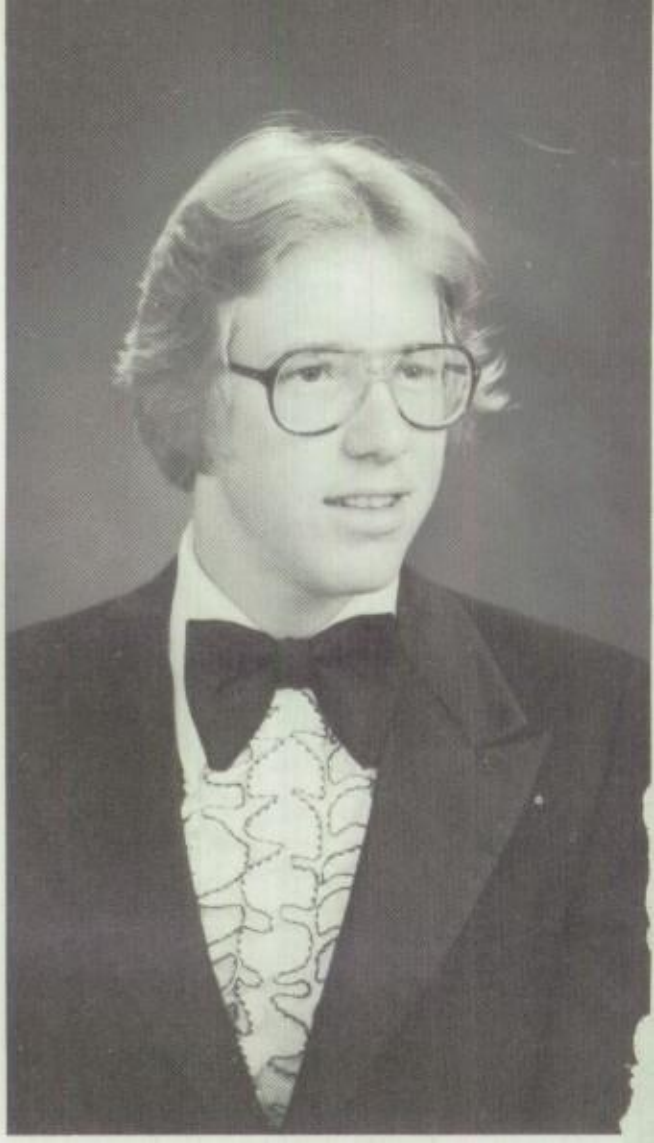
A fool always finds a greater fool to admire him.



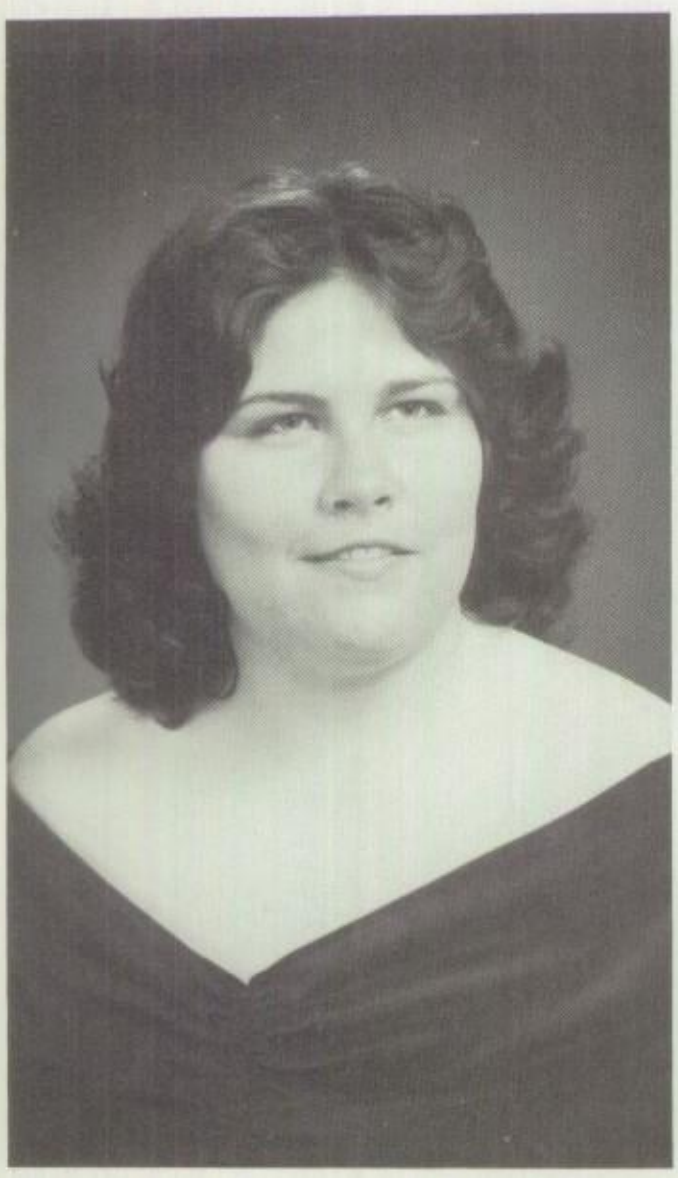
Kevin Whaley
May the Good Lord bless us All!



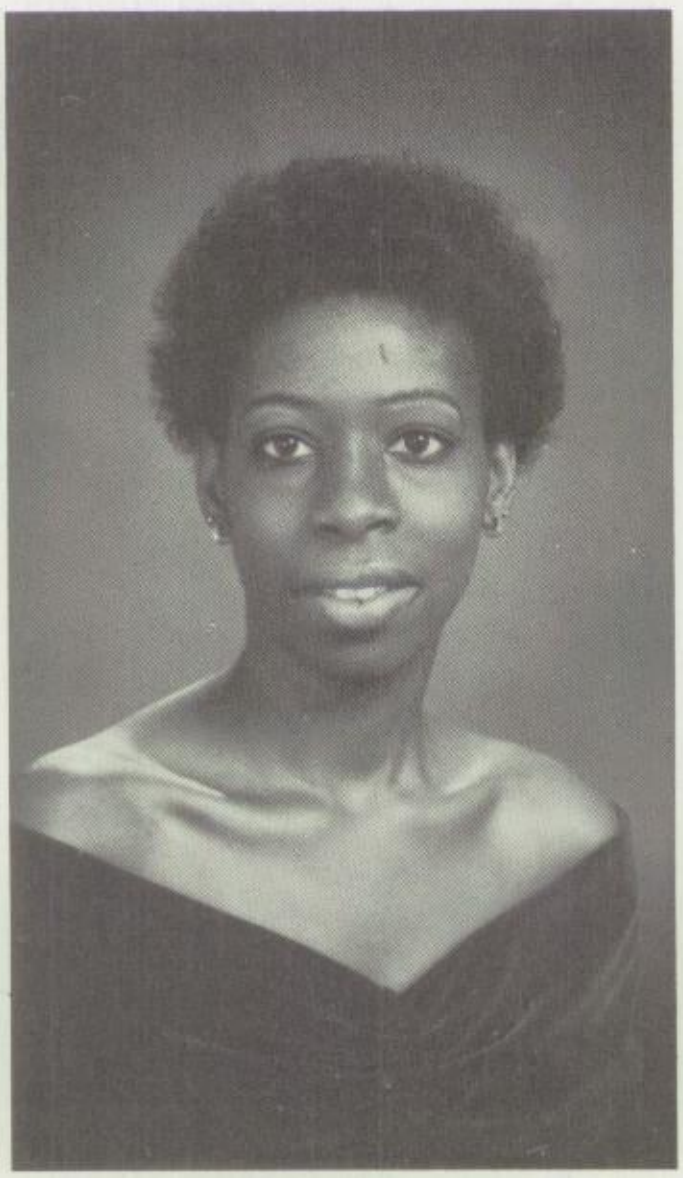
Scott Whitten
Isn't it a nice coincidence that you and I are both alive at the same time?



Paul Wicklund
Life is one big party, too bad I wan't invitec



Kim Williams
Whenever I feel like studying I just lie down until the feeling goes away.



Renay Williams
Why should I be willing to compromise when I'm the one who's right?

Sonya Winn
Accept me as I am, so I may learn what I can become.

Seniors Last Will and Testament

I, Cathy Abernathy, being of destroyed brain and tired body, hereby leave to my brothers, Tony and Mike, all my craziness and laughter in hope that they will have as much fun as I have had and maybe even learn something.

I, Jerry "Chicken Man" Arrington, of unsound mind and lazy body, leave the senior class of 1983 my ability to sleep in Mr. Phillips' government class.

I, Keith Barker, being of unsound mind and half decent body, do hereby leave Mr. Phillips the tranquility that he will experience once I'm gone.

I, Sir Jack Bennett, leave to Timothy Phillips my class disturbing wit, and to Doug McDowell, I leave my skill at Defender, and to the school, I leave without hesitation.

I, Tamara Bice, do hereby leave to Brenda W., Candi T., Kim D., Sonya B., and Darrin P. all the wonderful lunches here at school and sincerely hope that they will enjoy them even though I won't be here to make them so much more enjoyable. I also leave to Joan P. the ability to make it through football season as drum major and remain sane.

I, Roxanne Bowden, being of sound mind and short body, do leave to Renee B., Penny E. and Terri S. the ability to keep their swim suit tops tied during the band camp swimming party.

I, Scott "Bird" Boyd, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath to Joan P. my chemistry workbook (if I can find it), and to Danny Nance, my trig. book in hopes that he gets more use out of it than I did.

I, Robbie Bragg, being of forgetful mind and tired body, leave to my brother Donnie the ability to run like a race horse in Coach Mac's P.E. class. I also leave Shane Nance the ability to "punk out" and get away with it!

I, Marty Branson, being of sound mind and weak body, am not leaving anything.

I, Darlene Brewster, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Ohatchee High without a backward glance.

I, Janice "Blue" Brewster, being of sound mind and body, leave all my love and affection to George Teague.

I, Johnny Brewster, hereby leave my quietness and joy.

I, Tim "Cracker" Brewster, leave my ability to play the drums to the OHS drum line.

I, Kenny Brown, leave nothing because I need everything I can get.

I, Cheryl Ann Bryant, being of sound mind and body, leave to Kim M. all my driving abilities in hopes that she will improve them before she uses them. To Dana S., I leave a word of thanks and she knows for what.

I, Paula Calhoun, being of weak mind and sometimes sound body, do hereby leave to Anita C. my ability to sneak in during the morning hours and not get caught and to Stephanie S., I leave the knowledge on how to control your temper or at least not show it.

I, Beverly Christopher, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave Blake W. all my love and ability to graduate from high school so we can be together forever.

I, Dova Clark, being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby leave to any person who dares to take physics the ability to pass and still not know anything.

I, Tera Clark, being of insane mind and tired body, leave to the 1982-83 band the "pride" and "joy" of being the best band Ohatchee ever had and to Mr. T., a few more hairs for a few more seniors.

I, Celia Cofield, being of unsound mind and very tanned body, do hereby leave to Dewanna Cox and Lori Lay the ability to break the rules and not get caught.

I, Annette Connor, do hereby leave to my sister, Margie, my lifetime membership in the Yaphod Beeblebrox Fan Club, and to Kim K., I leave all my books and my towel.

I, Sharon Cox, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Valita R. my ability to make it through the year as president of FBLA and my skill of carrying out the elections of the new officers. Good Luck!

I, Dusty Cowan, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave to the Junior Class the right to be called a senior and do all the wrong things that seniors do.

I, Patty Davis, leave to my sister Sandy and to Tina U. all my love and sincere hopes that they will pass English next year.

I, Lewis Douthitt, leave my ability to play basketball as well as I did to Darren Douthitt and Torris Brewster.

I, Debbie Duke, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Shirley H. and Anita C. all the pleasures of living it up, luving it up, and never giving up on a good thing!

I, Seamonde Etheredge, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave all my love to Ms. Generalla Sturkie and to Mr. Phillips, a sense of humor.

I, Melissa Dunaway, being of sound mind and body, leave all the joy and excitement of a senior year to the Class of "83".

I, Laura Finch, hereby leave to Donna D., and Denise F., my ability to make Mr. Phillips mad and get away with it, and to G.T. to do the same to Mrs. A.

I, June Freeman, do hereby leave to the Seniors of "83" the privilege and the honor of being in Ms. Gatlin's class for a whole year. Good Luck!

I, Teresa Gaddy, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Donna and Denise my ability to stay half-way conscious in Ms. Gatlin's class.

I, Ricky Gallahar, leave Terry Wyatt the ability to play outside line backer and not get blocked by the tight end.

I, Jennifer Gilliland, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my sister Gina the ability to have as much fun in band as I did, and all my craziness in hopes she will have as much fun with it as I did. To Kim Dover lots of luck, in hopes she will make it through Ms. Gatlin's class! Good Luck!

I, Regina Gower, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my sister Lucretia the ability to make it through her last four years of high school and to Candi Thompson, the ability to make it all the way through a half-time show only to drop the baton on the last note.

I, Leeanne Hamby, because of my hard work and determination, am able to leave anyone who will accept the challenge, my ability to make it!

I, Joey Langston Hanner, being partially sound of mind and body, leave nothing for it took all I have to get where I am now.

I, Bruce Haynes, being of sound mind and body, leave to Ms. Gatlin all the good ones that I thought of, but never said.

I, Terry "Knot" Haynes, of unsound mind and halfway lazy body, leave the Senior Class of 83 my ability to pass in Ms. Gatlin's English Literature class and to Eric Mashburn, the ability to raise the devil in the halls for me next year.

I, Jill Henderson, do sincerely hope that I need not write what I will leave behind for I pray that all the love and thanks will be known without words and reminders.

I, Robin Henderson, just want to leave this place forever.

I, Dwayne Hightower, ain't leaving nothing to nobody, cause if I can't take it with me I ain't gonna go!

I, Lana Jean Howard, being of partially sound mind and tired body, do hereby leave to Cindy T. and Leah M. the hazards of the POW WOW and to the junior class, I leave a lot of luck because they are going to need it.

I, Gene Hyatt, do hereby leave my third period English class to any junior that wants it.

I, Regina Jackson, being of sound mind and body, leave to Kim P. and Rebecca C. my ability to be happy in school, make decent grades, graduate, and own a car.

I, James Johnson, being a very stingy person, leave nothing to anyone for I am taking it with me.

I, Lisa Johnson, being of sound mind and body, leave my ability to control men to Tammy and Tracy.

I, Matthew Kilgore, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave Ohatchee High School absolutely nothing.

I, Mike Kilgore, leave my sympathy to any junior that has literature with Ms. Gatlin.

I, Anita "Halfpint" Lee, being of somewhat mind and body, do hereby leave to J.T. all the good memories we have had together in band and to Linda F., the sanity she never had while I was in class.

I, Sharon Long, with sound body and mind do hereby leave to Randy Bowden the ability to graduate with great honors and pass Ms. Gatlin's class. Good Luck!

I, Eric "Bro" Martin, hereby leave all my quarterback worries and bruises to K.C.

I, Karin Martin, do hereby leave to my brother my ability to make it through 12 years of school and still come out smiling and to my close friends, G.T., and F.K., my ability to cut hair.

I, Susan Martin, being of weak mind and weak body, do hereby leave to Leah, Dana and Candi the ability to buy and re-sell a term paper and not get caught (Just kidding, Ms. Gatlin).

I, Agnes Montgomery, being of sound mind and body, leave all my love and affection to Charles Teague.

I, Kelly Morris, leave my sleeping ability to any junior who is lazy enough to want it.

I, Rita Nance, do hereby leave to the Senior Class of 83 my ability to write a term paper the night before it is due.

I, Annese Pardee, being of dirty mind and small body, leave Ohatchee High School not a single solitary thing!

I, Bertis Phillips, being of tired mind and body, leave to Sonya S. the ability to make it to the 12th grade with a lot of memories from the good times we had, especially those with "Froggie".

I, Mark Price, being of sound mind and body, (I think) leave to the Seniors of 83 my ability to pass Ms. Gatlin's literature tests.

I, Donna Reaves, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my "big" sister Valita the thanks she deserves but never gets and my place on the Parliamentary Team. Finally I leave a smile, just for her.

I, Steve Reaves, being of sound body and mind, leave to Bobby W. my forestry judging skills in hopes he can use them in Montgomery next year.

I, Penny "Pooh" Rudd, being of corrupt mind and tired body, leave the OHS lunchroom ladies a new book of menus.

I, Duane "Red" Smith, leave my ability to play football and basketball to the Senior Class of 83

I, Elisa Sturkie, being of unsound mind and body, leave to the band my ability to sneak to the restroom during a football game and not get caught and to Kim D., all the cookies in my cookie jar.

I, Gregory "Bum" Sturkie, do hereby leave my ability to produce the best to Kendall and all those guys who can't.

I, Josie Teague, leave my brown skin to Ms. Gatlin, my long legs to the person who tries to jump hurdles, my soul to Mr. Phillips, and lastly I leave my hair to Mr. Townsend for all the loss of hair he has incurred during the past six years.

I, Eramond Usrey, leave to my sister Tina the ability to graduate with a smile.

I, Dennis "D.W.I." Watts, having a sound mind and body, leave to Birdhead the ability to raise the devil in the halls and the ability to stay out of trouble in Mrs. Sprayberry's room.

I, Kevin Whaley, leave . . . y'all come with me.

I, Scott Whitten, leave Ohatchee High.

I, Paul Wicklund, being of confused mind and unhealthy body, do hereby pass on Marty Kilgore's Kamikazy driving skills and the ability to avoid being pulled over by cops to Doug McDowell.

I, Kim Williams, being of sound mind and body, gladly leave my title as a senior to any of next year's seniors who can live through their senior year.

I, "Na, Na" Williams, being of sound mind and body, leave my athletic ability to my sister, Charlotte and to Sharon Brewster, I leave my ability to smile through the bad times that may come her way.

I, Sonya Winn, being of sound mind and short body, do hereby leave my ability to pass Mr. Phillips' test without studying to Mandy N. and to Leah M., I gladly leave my position as assistant editor of the POW WOW and finally, I leave my love and tears for all the wonderful memories to OHS!
